The password protected video FTP site will be hosting Monday press conferences with Florida State Football Head Coach Jimbo Fisher and the starting quarterback and a Thursday Jimbo Fisher interview.

If you have an interest in creating an account that gives you access to the video weekly, please email Elliott Finebloom (efinebloom@fsu.edu). If you are looking for access just for a particular game week, please email prior to that game to set up a guest account.

Credential Requests

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be directed to our online credentialing site located on the Seminoles.com Media Relations page no later than four days prior to the game. PHOTOS WILL BE REQUIRED AND MUST BE UPLOADED AT THE TIME YOU REQUEST CREDENTIALS. PHOTO MUST BE IN COLOR AND PROVIDE A CLEAR VIEW OF THE FACE. Requests for season credentials should be made at least two weeks prior to the first game. Space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the FSU Sports Information Office. Any credential questions can be answered by Assistant A.D./SID and Digital Media Elliott Finebloom.

Press Parking

Once again, parking is limited in 2015 and passes will be issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials. Press parking is approximately 600 yards from the press box, located in the parking garage just north of the Seminole Soccer Complex on Spirit Way.

Media Will Call

Media Will Call is located near Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. Do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance" where the media will call table is located right inside the doors.

Press Box

All media, with the exception of the live network telecast crew, will work from the ninth level of the press box. Media can access the press box only through the designated elevator in the northwest tower of the University Center. After parking, media should proceed down Stadium Drive and move towards Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. To enter the press box, do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance." The press box opens three hours before kickoff.

Internet Access

Internet access is available in the ninth level press box and photo work room. Access to the wireless internet requires guests to register through their computer. Guests should connect to the FSUWin internet connection and then open an internet browser. Guests will be taken to a welcome screen where they will click on Guest Registration and fill out the necessary information to receive the appropriate login information.

Radio-TV

Florida State will host both home and visiting radio in booths in the press box. Network television (or the network broadcasting live) will be working from a mid-field booth on the eighth level (one below working press). Both home and visiting radio will broadcast from booths at the south end of the ninth level.

Photographers

Florida State reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes and who are shooting for editorial purposes only. All photographers working FSU games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college football. Florida State uses a double photo line system on its sidelines. Only those photographers actually shooting the game will be allowed on the "front" line. These shooters will be given photo vests upon check-in to allow them front line access. All other photo personnel will be required to stay behind a second line as not to obstruct the view of the shooters. This would include grips, runners and sideline reporters. No media personnel are allowed in the team area of the sidelines at any time during a game. Sideline passes for over-the-air television will be limited to shooters only. Still photographers may have access to the sidelines only. Those holding a photography credential should report to the Press Box where they will be issued a vest, rosters and a pre-game meal. The only access to the field is through the gate at the northwest corner of the stadium near Gate A. A guarded photo workroom is available and located underneath Section 8 on the East side of the stadium in (E-142).

Florida State's broadcast crew is known as one of the nation's best, as it provides insight and entertainment, as well as detailed and expert analysis. The broadcast features award-winning play-by-play announcer Gene Deckerhoff, a veteran of the Seminole broadcasts heading into his 37th season. Deckerhoff is nationally known as one of the finest announcers in the South. The "Voice of the Seminoles" is a 14-time winner of the NSSA Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award and has been inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Deckerhoff has been the play-by-play announcer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the NFL for the past 26 years, making for some very busy fall weekends. He runs Gene Deckerhoff Productions, a firm specializing in sports broadcasting and the production of radio and television commercials.

Voice of the 'Noles Still Booming in 37th year

Gene Deckerhoff joined an elite list of esteemed radio broadcasters when he called his 400th Florida State football game against Virginia in 2011. Now in his 37th season, the Jacksonville native and Florida grad moved to Tallahassee for the job he has now held since the 1979 season.

Deckerhoff was selected over two other broadcasters of some note - the late Tom Mees, who became a national figure at ESPN, and Craig Sager, who is best known for his NBA work on TBS.

A bona fide legend in broadcasting and one of only four announcers ever inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, Deckerhoff has also called FSU basketball since 1974 and been the voice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since 1989.

In 2015, Deckerhoff was presented with the prestigious Lindsey Nelson Award for broadcasting excellence. He has been honored with the Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award 14 times and is a member of the Florida State University Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2013, Deckerhoff won the National Football Foundation Chris Schenkel Award.

The only FSU football games he has missed were bowl games that the school did not have the rights to broadcast.

National Champion and Super Bowl winner William Floyd joins Deckerhoff in the booth as the color analyst. Floyd is now in his eighth season broadcasting FSU football games after joining the team in 2008. The former Florida State great is very familiar with the broadcasting world as he has hosted his own radio show in the Bay Area and worked as a reporter and studio analyst for SUN Sports. During the pregame show, Tom Block and Senior Associate Athletic Director Monk Bonasorte join Floyd in providing in-depth analysis of the upcoming game. Florida State's game-day broadcasts begin two hours prior to every kickoff.

The Jimbo Fisher Show

"The Jimbo Fisher Show," televised throughout the entire state of Florida, features the head football coach of the Florida State Seminoles. Coach Fisher is joined each week on the show by host Tom Block. Every Monday afternoon during football season, Coach Fisher along with Block review the action-packed highlights of the previous week's game.

Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show

On Wednesday evenings, Seminole fans have the chance to visit with FSU head coach Jimbo Fisher and "The Voice of the Seminoles" Gene Deckerhoff during "The Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show" live from the Four Points Sheraton in downtown Tallahassee. Coach Fisher's call-in show is an hour-long broadcast beginning at 7 p.m. The show features Coach Fisher and Deckerhoff talking directly with fans from across the country, touching on game insights, trivia, and random Seminole banter.

SEMINOLE PRODUCTIONS

Anyone who has visited the second floor broadcast facilities in the Moore Athletics Center has seen them - the two very large, yet overcrowded trophy cases in the Seminole Productions area. That's because each and every year, Florida State's Seminole Productions is recognized for excellence. With an experienced, award-winning staff and talented students, Seminole Productions is viewed as a leader in sports production, graphics, and corporate video. Additionally ESPN executives visited the state of the art SP facility in 2001 and were so impressed, that they set in motion the groundwork to form a strategic partnership with Seminole Productions. ESPN has contracted Seminole Productions to produce both live events and show programming for their sports networks including ESPN3, ESPN2, and ESPNU. Since then, Seminole Productions has produced over 180 Live Events for ESPN including Football Pro Day, Football National Signing Day and Football Spring Games, as well as Baseball, Basketball, Soccer, Softball, Volleyball, Tennis, and also NCAA Championships, just to name a few.

Established in 1987, Seminole Productions handles virtually every video production need for Florida State Athletics. It produces the Jimbo Fisher, Leonard Hamilton, Sue Semrau and Mike Martin TV shows, as well as Seminole Sports Magazine and other contracted shows for major networks. Seminole Productions also provides all of the production elements and support for Seminole Vision, the in-game entertainment productions for all Florida State football, basketball and baseball home contests. Creating the perfect blend of high-tech wizardry with outstanding Seminole sports action is a big part of what Seminole Productions is all about. Seminole Productions also provides visual communication support for the government and other agencies throughout the State of Florida.

Over the years, Seminole Productions has won over 140 national and international awards in a variety of production and graphics categories. It was recognized for its work with Florida State athletics on both TV programs, and for content running on FSU's Big Screen displays. SP has won the Golden Matrix award twice as the Nations Best College Video in game productions voted on by the NFL, NHL, MLB, and NBA. In 2011, 2012 and again in 2013, SP staff members were nominated for Emmy awards by the NATAS Suncoast Chapter. SP earned nominations for behind the scenes shows on FSU Swimming and Women's Basketball and a special feature on FSU Football.

Seminole Productions has also established itself as a leader in stereo 3D (S3D) video production while producing Florida State football's highlight video in S3D. FSU is the only school in the nation to have their football highlights in S3D. Executive Director Mark Rodin continues to test the boundaries of S3D with experimentation in other sports and various programming. Seminole Productions has partnered with several industry leaders in broadcast production to test and evaluate S3D equipment, while seeking new techniques and applications.

Beyond it's professional work, Seminole Productions main mission is one of teaching and is a part of the FSU College of Communications and Information. Director Mark Rodin is on the Faculty and Assistant Director Jim Garbarino and Producer Jerry Tootle are also Adjunct Professors for the College. FSU Communications students get to learn while working on professional productions for real networks on state of the art equipment. Seminole Productions has placed students in the broadcasting and film industries everywhere from New York to Los Angeles and with professional sports teams nationwide.

2015 SEMINOLE FOOTBALL SEASON PREVIEW

The Florida State football team in January completed one of the MOST SUCCESSFUL and decorated runs in program history.

Dating to 2012, the Seminoles reeled off 29 CONSECUTIVE VICTORIES that included the 2013 BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP, THREE ACC TITLES and an appearance in the FIRST EVER COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF GAME at the Rose Bowl.

And if the era needed an exclamation point, it got one in April when 11 SEMINOLES were DRAFTED into the NFL. That, combined with 11 picks in 2013 and seven more in 2014, gave FSU a RECORD-BREAKING 29 PLAYERS SELECTED during a three-year span.

NOW FOR THE ENCORE.

FSU in 2015 might not completely turn the page from recent seasons, but there will be several new faces asked to hold up the PROGRAM'S HIGH STANDARD. The Seminoles are set to break in newcomers at quarterback, receiver, tight end, offensive line, defensive line and cornerback.

“Our expectations here don’t ever change,” said FSU coach Jimbo Fisher, who will enter his sixth year at the helm. “One of the EXCITING things about this group is that we have a young, VERY TALENTED football team. What we have to do is make sure they become good football players.”

There’s certainly no shortage of POTENTIAL. At QUARTERBACK, the Seminoles have experienced redshirt junior Sean Maguire vying with senior transfer Everett Golson for the right to succeed Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston. Meanwhile, a host of talented underclassmen are waiting in the wings.

Dalvin Cook is back after the MOST PRODUCTIVE SEASON for a freshman RUNNING BACK in FSU history. Along with fourth-year junior Mario Pender and promising freshman Jacques Patrick, they could form one of the deepest and most dangerous backfields in the nation.

OUR EXPECTATIONS HERE DON'T EVER CHANGE.

-FSU COACH JIMBO FISHER

Despite the loss of record-breaking seniors Rashad Greene and Nick O'Leary, FSU's RECEIVERS AND TIGHT ENDS appear to be in good hands thanks to a group of underclassmen spearheaded by players such as Travis Rudolph, Ermon Lane and Mavin Saunders.

FSU's OFFENSIVE LINE will rely on sophomore Roderick Johnson to set the standard for four new starters, but with two junior college transfers and a few understudies with time in the program, the Seminoles hope to enjoy an easy transition up front.

On DEFENSE, Florida State looks to veterans at all three position groups to lead the way. That begins with ALL-AMERICA DEFENSIVE BACK Jalen Ramsey, who has thrived at safety and "star" in his first two seasons and is set to transition to cornerback this fall.

The Seminoles also boast a COMBINED 27 STARTS in 2014 between safeties Tyler Hunter and Nate Andrews and can rely on the tackling prowess of seniors Terrance Smith and Reggie Northrup at LINEBACKER.

Up front, the Seminoles have two fifth-year seniors tasked with not only holding the line but also with bringing along a large group of second-year DEFENSIVE LINEMEN.

Finally, FSU can take comfort in the fact that it has one of the best KICKERS in recent college football history handling kickoffs, field goals and extra points, as well as a FOUR-YEAR STARTER at punter.

The Seminoles in 2015 will face a unique SCHEDULE that features an 11:30 a.m. kickoff against in-state foe USF, as well as a rare FRIDAY-NIGHT game at Boston College to open ACC PLAY.

Particularly CHALLENGING will be a three-game stretch in mid-October that includes visits from Miami and Louisville and a trip to Georgia Tech which marks FSU's first regular-season meeting with the Yellow Jackets since 2009.

Things don't get much easier in the second half of the schedule, as visits to Clemson and Florida could make for a MEMORABLE November.

2015 SEASON PREVIEW FSU OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

- Florida State has a rare opportunity to welcome a veteran into the fold in 2015. Everett Golson, the quarterback who helped lead Notre Dame to the 2013 BCS National Championship Game, transferred to FSU over the summer. Having already completed his bachelor's degree at Notre Dame, Golson is eligible to play for the Seminoles immediately. Golson threw for 3,445 yards and 29 touchdowns a year ago, including 313 yards and three TDs during the Fighting Irish's visit to FSU last season.
- Fourth-year junior Sean Maguire entered the summer with the inside track to the starting job after a strong spring camp in which he took most of the first-team reps. Maguire is the most experienced of FSU's returning quarterbacks, with his come-from-behind, overtime win over Clemson rating as one of the 2014 season's most memorable moments.
- J.J. Cosentino is set to begin his second year in Tallahassee and, if April's spring game is any indication, has made big strides over the last 12 months. He threw for 177 yards and a touchdown while completing 63.6 percent (7 for 11) of his passes.
- Freshman Deondre Francois arrives this fall with one of the top pedigrees of any high school quarterback recruits in the nation. The four-star prospect and Under Armour All-American threw for more than 4,600 yards in three years split between Olympia in Orlando and IMG Academy in Bradenton, and he tossed 47 TDs during his three-year career. Francois picked FSU after receiving heavy interest from nearly every major college football program in America.

RUNNING BACKS

- Dalvin Cook is back for Round 2 after posting the most productive freshman season of any running back in FSU history. His 1,008 rushing yards in 2014 were the most for a first-year Seminole running back, and he finished the season with All-ACC and various national All-Freshman honors.
- Fourth-year junior Mario Pender is looking to build on the momentum of a strong start to last season. The speedy Pender averaged 5.0 yards per carry and scored four rushing touchdowns before a mid-season injury slowed his progress.

- One of FSU's most buzz-worthy early-enrollees, Jacques Patrick made a strong first impression at spring camp. The 6-2, 235-pound freshman dazzled with a series of tough, physical runs at the Garnet & Gold Game, and he ranks among the top RB prospects in the nation by every major recruiting service.
- As he enters his junior year, Freddie Stevenson is set to take the next step as FSU's primary fullback. He helped pave the way for the Seminoles' prodigious trio of Cook, Pender and Karlos Williams a year ago, and even got in on the scoring action himself with a decisive TD reception in FSU's win over Louisville.
- Johnathan Vickers enjoyed a productive freshman season on special teams and should share some of FSU's duties in the backfield.

RECEIVERS

- The Seminoles in 2015 will look to a new, talented wave of receivers to carry the torch passed on from departed star Rashad Greene. Junior Bobo Wilson is the most experienced of the bunch and is FSU's top returning receiver after catching 42 passes for 527 yards and four touchdowns a year ago.
- Although he's only a sophomore, Travis Rudolph has already drawn comparisons to Greene, including one from Greene himself. The 6-1, 186-pound West Palm Beach native emerged as a starter midway through last season and seemed to only get better as the year progressed. He finished with 38 catches, 555 yards and four TDs. Joining Rudolph will be promising sophomores Ermon Lane (13 catches, 267 yards, team-high 20.5 YPC in 2014) and Ja'Vonn Harrison, who consistently drew positive reviews from Fisher during the 2015 spring game.
- FSU welcomed two early-enrollee receivers in January 2014: George Campbell and Da'Vante Phillips. Campbell, a former five-star prospect, made a fast first impression with a 65-yard TD early in April's spring game.

TIGHT ENDS

- The Seminoles enter 2015 with a trio of fresh-faced tight ends hoping to replace John Mackey Award winner Nick O'Leary. That group includes a third-year sophomore (Jeremy Kerr) and two redshirt freshmen (Mavin Saunders and Ryan Izzo). Kerr appeared in all 14 games a year ago and was named the team's offensive scout team player of the year.
- Each of the Seminoles' tight ends boasts an impressive physical frame. Kerr stands 6-6, while Izzo and Saunders are right behind him at 6-5. And all three tight ends weigh at least 240 pounds.

OFFENSIVE LINE

- Just a few months ago, left tackle Roderick Johnson was the lone newcomer on an offensive line that featured four senior starters. Now a sophomore, Johnson is the only returning starter in a group that will break in four newcomers. Johnson's surprise insertion into the lineup prior to last year's Miami game proved to be a revelation. FSU's offensive production increased during Johnson's five starts and the Seminoles posted two of their highest outputs (488 yards against Georgia Tech and 528 yards against Oregon) with Johnson anchoring the left side.
- FSU has several linemen that appear ready for action. That includes a pair of former junior college transfers, tackle Chad Mavety and guard Kareem Are, who Fisher said could have played last year if needed. Mavety, a 6-5, 337-pound redshirt junior, took most of the first-team reps at right tackle during the spring. And Are, another fourth-year junior who stands 6-6, 334 pounds, is in line to take over for former All-American Josue Matias at left guard.
- Wilson Bell, a cross-training third-year sophomore, is the front-runner to fill the opening at right guard left by former All-American Tre' Jackson.
- That just leaves the center position, where third-year sophomore Ryan Hoefeld will compete with redshirt freshmen Alec Eberle and Corey Martinez for the starting job. Hoefeld started four games at center a year ago.

INTERIOR DEFENSIVE LINE

- A pair of fifth-year seniors return to lead FSU's defensive tackles. Derrick Mitchell Jr., one of FSU's most pleasant surprises after staying healthy for most of last season, is back after making 20 tackles and two pass break-ups in his first year as a regular contributor. And Nile Lawrence-Stample was off to a fine start to last season before a torn pectoral muscle suffered against Clemson sidelined him for the meat of the schedule. He returned for the Rose Bowl and is hoping that a promising performance against Oregon (tackle, blocked PAT) can be used as a springboard into 2015.
- FSU looks to lean on a large group of second-year defensive tackles to step up and make an impact, especially in the wake of second-round pick Eddie Goldman's departure. Sophomore Derrick Nnadi (18 tackles in nine games) has the edge in experience over his peers, but redshirt freshmen Demarcus Christmas, Adam Torres, Fredrick Jones and Arthur Williams will each have plenty of opportunities to earn playing time.
- That also goes for the veteran trio of Giorgio Newberry, Justin Shanks and Keith Bryant. Newberry, a fifth-year senior, appeared in 14 games last season and also served on special teams. He's entering his second year as a defensive tackle after stints at tight end and defensive end.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

- FSU's defensive end corps features two players who earned team defensive MVP honors in spring camp. Even more encouraging is that that duo features a veteran – junior DeMarcus Walker (38 tackles, 6.0 TFLs in 2014), and a newcomer – sophomore Rick Leonard. Walker, a Jacksonville native, is FSU's top returning DE, and will be a key component to the Seminoles' pass rush as it adjusts to life without former Seminole star Mario Edwards Jr. Leonard, meanwhile, showed flashes of potential while playing in four games last season and was one of FSU's most consistent standouts during the spring. At 6-7, 281 pounds, the Maryland native can create matchup problems for opposing linemen.
- Chris Casher, set to become a fourth-year junior, is FSU's most experienced defensive end and coming off a season in which he made 28 tackles and 3.5 tackles for loss. Casher could also see time at linebacker in FSU's different defensive sets.

- The talented sophomore duo of Jacob Pugh and Lorenzo Featherston are back after leaving their marks on FSU's 2014 season. The two helped swing last year's NC State game in FSU's favor after Featherston forced a sack and a fumble that Pugh recovered. Pugh, a former standout at Godby High in Tallahassee, also grabbed two interceptions against Notre Dame, including one in the end zone that sealed the Seminoles' come-from-behind victory. And Featherston has added nearly 10 pounds to his 6-foot-7 frame: entering 2015, he's listed at 229 pounds after playing at 220 last year.
- Jimbo Fisher and Co. signed the No. 1 defensive end prospect in the country, Virginia native Josh Sweat, in February. Sweat brings a coveted blend of size (6-5, 237) and explosiveness, but is still on the mend from a knee injury that cost him most of his senior season at Oscar Smith High.
- Brad Lawing takes over as FSU's defensive ends coach after stints at South Carolina and Florida. His former protégés include the 2014 No. 1 overall draft pick Jadeveon Clowney, as well as first-round picks Dante Fowler, Dominique Easley and Melvin Ingram.

LINEBACKERS

- Reggie Northrup enters his senior year having finished one of the most statistically proficient seasons for an FSU linebacker in recent history. In his first year as a full-time starter, the Jacksonville native posted 122 tackles – the most since Kendyll Pope had 133 in 2002, and earned third-team All-ACC honors. Northrup spent the spring and summer recovering from knee surgery that resulted from an injury in the Rose Bowl.
- Fifth-year senior Terrance Smith returns to form a productive and experienced tandem with Northrup. Smith is entering his third year as a starter and is coming off a junior year in which he posted 87 tackles in 12 games and earned second team All-ACC honors. His 94-yard interception return for a touchdown against Florida swung the tide of that game and helped the Seminoles to their fourth win against their rival in five years.
- Matthew Thomas emerged as a starter by the end of last season and, now entering his redshirt sophomore season, is hoping to capitalize further on his considerable talent. He notched 26 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss despite playing in only eight games.
- After beginning his college career as a defensive back, Tyrell Lyons played full-time linebacker during the spring and appears to be in the hunt for a featured role this fall. Teammates praised his instincts and toughness around the ball. Ro'Derrick Hoskins, a redshirt sophomore, came into his own in the spring and should battle for playing time along with junior college newcomer Lorenzo Phillips.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

- One of the most dynamic, versatile and hard-hitting defensive backs in the country returns to lead the FSU secondary. Jalen Ramsey, who earned a spot on multiple All-America teams a year ago, is back for his junior season, and this time is set to play a new position. After spending most of his freshman year as a safety and then switching to the "Star" nickelback position as a sophomore, Ramsey is set to line up at cornerback in 2015. A former five-star prospect who also stars on Florida State's track and field team, Ramsey said this spring that he relished the move to cornerback, and that lining up, one on one, across from an opposing receiver is where his heart lies. A native of Smyrna, Tenn., near Nashville, Ramsey made 79 tackles and 9.5 tackles for loss while starting all 14 games a season ago. He has an active starts streak of 28 games.
- Junior Ryan Green is now lining up at cornerback after two years as a running back. A former high school DB, Fisher believes that Green has the requisite instincts and athleticism to succeed on defense. He'll compete with fellow junior Marquez White at the corner position opposite Ramsey, while sophomore Malique Jackson should also compete for reps.
- The Seminoles have a pair of experienced veterans in their last line of defense. Fifth-year senior Tyler Hunter (65 tackles, 7 pass break-ups) and Nate Andrews (93 tackles, 3 INTs) are back at the safety spots after combining to make 27 starts in 2014.
- Redshirt senior Lamarucus Brutus proved to be a playmaker as a reserve safety and in dime packages last season. The Port St. Lucie, Fla., native will compete for first-team action, while classmate Keelin Smith is also expected to compete for playing time at safety.
- With Ramsey on the move to cornerback, sophomore Trey Marshall is next in line to take over the "Star" position made famous by the likes of Ramsey and former Seminole star Lamarucus Joyner. Marshall, who hails from nearby Lake City, Fla., effectively auditioned for the role in last year's ACC Championship Game after an injury forced coordinator Charles Kelly to shuffle the lineup. He finished with a season-high five tackles and a tackle for loss.
- Freshman safety Derwin James immediately made waves during spring camp thanks to his aggressive, physical play. Fisher said several times that the Haines City, Fla., native, who ranked as one of the nation's top overall high school prospects, will have a role this fall.

ROBERTO AGUAYO

2015 SEASON PREVIEW

FSU SPECIALISTS

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Roberto Aguayo enters his redshirt junior season having already cemented his place among the best kickers in college football history. In two years, the All-American from Mascotte, Fla., has converted 48 of 52 (92.3 percent) field goal attempts while booting a perfect 149 of 149 extra points. After winning the Lou Groza Award as a redshirt freshman in 2013, Aguayo followed up with perhaps an even better season in 2014. He connected on 27 of 30 field goals for a nation's-best 90.0 percentage. He led the ACC in kicker scoring and made the second-most field goals of anyone in the country while earning consensus All-America honors.

- Senior Cason Beatty is back for his fourth year as FSU's starting punter. Beatty's most recent season was his best, as he averaged 41.0 yards per punt and had seven punts go for at least 50 yards.

- Kermit Whitfield and Bobo Wilson return as FSU's primary kick returners, with Whitfield in particular looking to regain the form that saw him lead the nation in kick-return average (36.4 yards per return) as a freshman in 2013. Special teams coordinator Jay Graham also tried out Travis Rudolph, Mario Pender and Dalvin Cook in the spring, and any of that trio could get an opportunity to return kicks this fall.

- Stephen Gabbard shouldered the long-snapping duties a year ago, handling every punt, field goal and extra-point attempt as a true freshman. FSU did not have a single errant snap result in a blocked punt or field goal.

HEAD COACH

JIMBO FISHER

The numbers speak for themselves: 29 consecutive wins. A 14-0 season in 2013. 11.6 wins per season. A modern-day record 29 draft picks over a three-year span. The .841 winning percentage. The No. 1 pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

The list could go on and on.

Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher has established himself as one of the nation's top coaches just five years into what is becoming a legendary head coaching career.

In his fourth year as a head coach, Fisher planted the Seminoles back at the top of the college football world, leading Florida State to an undefeated national championship season in 2013. He followed that incredible campaign with another outstanding year in 2014, taking FSU to the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl and capturing the Noles' third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championship.

Entering year six, Fisher has driven Florida State to become one of college football's premier programs. The Seminoles have won the most games of any team in college football over the last three seasons (39) while setting the modern-day record for NFL draft picks over a three-year period with 29. Fisher has an overall record of 58-11 and a win percentage of .841 – the highest of any coach in ACC history. Among head coaches of "Power Five" conference teams, Fisher's 58 wins in his first five seasons are the most in history. Only former Boise State head coach Chris Petersen (61) had more victories in his first five seasons in major college football since 1900.

Fisher guided Florida State to a 13-1 record in 2014 and completed a stretch where the Seminoles won 29 consecutive games – the most in ACC and FSU history. He has taken FSU to five straight bowl games and won four, including victories at the 2014 BCS National Championship and the 2013 Orange Bowl.

After 22 seasons as a college assistant, including three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher in 2010 succeeded Bobby Bowden - the second-winningest coach in major college football. The Seminoles' first new coach in 35 years, and just the ninth in program history, hit the ground running and hasn't looked back. He led the Noles to a 10-4 mark in 2010 - the most wins by a first-year coach in FSU history - and the first of four ACC Atlantic Division titles. He followed with a 9-4 season in 2011 and improved to 12-2 in year three before the perfect 14-0 2013 campaign and the one-loss 2014 season.

In 2013, Fisher's Seminoles were one of the most dominant and well-balanced teams in college football history. FSU set the national record for points in a season (723), while leading the nation in scoring defense (12.1). Fisher was named the 2013 Rawlings National College Football Coach of the Year and the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year for Region 1, as the Seminoles became the sixth team ever to win 14 games and the first ACC team to accomplish the feat.

Known for his success in developing quarterbacks, Fisher has tutored three first-round NFL draft picks at the position at FSU. That includes Jameis Winston, who became the first Seminole selected first overall in the NFL Draft, going to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015. Current Oakland Raiders quarterback Christian Ponder (12th overall pick, 2011) and current Buffalo Bills quarterback EJ Manuel (16th overall, 2013) also developed under Fisher. Fisher guided Winston to one of the greatest seasons ever by a collegiate quarterback in 2013. Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while collecting several other awards in addition to consensus All-America honors. In 2014, Winston led the ACC in nearly every passing category and was an All-ACC First Team selection for a second straight year.

Overall, Fisher has seen 36 Seminoles drafted into the NFL in his first five seasons. The Seminoles tied their own ACC record with 11 draft picks in 2015, led by first-round selections Winston and offensive lineman Cameron Erving (19th pick, Cleveland Browns).

The Seminoles show no sign of letting up either. Florida State has put together four top-five recruiting classes in the last five years. The 2014 and 2015 classes were both ranked No. 3 in the nation by ESPN, while the 2013 class was a consensus Top 10. Fisher's 2011 class was ranked No. 1 or 2 by every major recruiting service, while the 2012 haul finished at No. 2 by ESPN.

Off the field, Fisher has been just as impressive. Since becoming head coach in 2010, Fisher has been very active in several efforts to raise funds and awareness for children with diseases, including Kidz1stFund.

Kidz1stFund was founded by Jimbo and Candi Fisher in 2011 and is a national fund to raise awareness and research funds to find a cure for Fanconi anemia, a rare blood disease that affects many, including Fisher's youngest son Ethan. Kidz1stFund has already donated more than $3 million to FA research at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital, the largest FA treatment center in the country.

In May 2015, Fisher helped Dick Vitale and the V Foundation raise $2.38 million for pediatric cancer research in one night at the longtime ESPN basketball analyst's 10th annual gala event. Fisher was honored at the event for his philanthropic efforts.

TWENTY-NINE IN A ROW AND FIRST-EVER COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

Florida State continued its historic run under Fisher in 2014, winning its first 13 games before falling to Oregon in the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl.

The Seminoles capped a 29-game win streak by winning their third consecutive ACC Championship, defeating Georgia Tech, 37-35, on Dec. 6, 2014. The 29-game win streak shattered the ACC and FSU records and was the nation's second-longest streak over the last 20 years. FSU became just the 14th team in college football history to win 29 straight games.

While the 2013 FSU team was historically dominant, the 2014 Seminoles showed the most resilience of arguably any team in the country. As the defending national champion, FSU had a significant bulls-eye on its back and received every team's best shot. And yet for 13 straight weeks, FSU refused to be knocked out. The Noles led the nation with five come-from-behind victories, including a school-record 21-point, come-from-behind win at Louisville and a 16-point rally at Miami.

In Week 3, the Seminoles came back to beat Clemson in overtime behind 300 yards passing from reserve quarterback Sean Maguire. The next week, FSU trailed 24-7 after one quarter at NC State and still won by 15 points. Florida State battled Notre Dame until the clock hit zeroes in a matchup of top-five teams, grabbing an interception on the game's final play to preserve a 31-27 victory.

By the time FSU faced Louisville, coming from behind and winning close games had become "old hat," but the Seminoles overcame a 21-0, second-quarter deficit by outscoring Louisville 42-10 the final 30:33 of the game. Most impressively, 28 of those points came from true freshmen.

When the Seminoles got down 16-0 early at Miami a few weeks later, there were no worries as FSU would go on to edge the Hurricanes, 30-26.

Florida State had 17 players capture All-ACC honors for a second straight season, while senior Nick O'Leary won the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end. O'Leary joined senior right guard Tre' Jackson, redshirt sophomore kicker Roberto Aguayo, redshirt senior offensive lineman Cameron Erving and sophomore safety Jalen Ramsey as First Team All-Americans. Senior receiver Rashad Greene wrapped up his career by setting the FSU record for career receptions and the FSU and ACC record for career receiving yardage. Fisher was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Paul Bear Bryant Coach of the Year awards for the second year in a row.

"We worked together for five years. He did a fabulous job for us at LSU as the offensive coordinator. I think he's got all the right stuff to be a great head coach. I know he's turned down other opportunities to stay at Florida State and we're happy he's getting the opportunity as a head coach."

THE NATIONAL CHAMPION

Considered to have one of the best offensive minds in the college ranks, Fisher's early success has come in all three phases of the game: offense, defense and special teams.

The 2013 season personified that balance with one of the all-around most prolific years in college football history.

The Seminoles set the national record for points in a season (723), while leading the nation in scoring defense (12.1). Roberto Aguayo, then a redshirt freshman, set the national record for points by a kicker (157) and won the Lou Groza Award.

Head Coach Jimbo Fisher A CLOSER LOOK

- Fisher has won 58 games since becoming head coach at Florida State in 2010, which ranks as the most wins by a "Power Five" conference head coach in the modern era in his first five seasons. Only former Boise State head coach Chris Petersen (61 wins) has had more wins in his first five seasons since 1900.
- Fisher has an overall record of 58-11 as a head coach, giving him by far the highest winning percentage in ACC history at .841. Among active coaches with at least three seasons of FBS experience, Fisher ranks third in winning percentage behind only Washington's Chris Petersen (.847) and Ohio State's Urban Meyer (.845).
- FSU has won 39 games over the last three seasons – the most in college football over that span.
- Fisher has led FSU to three consecutive ACC Championships. The Seminoles' 37-35 victory over Georgia Tech in the 2014 ACC Championship Game on Dec. 6 in Charlotte, N.C., gave the Seminoles the most conference championships (15) in ACC history, overtaking Clemson (14). FSU defeated Duke, 45-7, to win the 2013 ACC Championship Game and dropped Georgia Tech, 21-15, in the 2012 conference title game.
- Guided FSU to 29 consecutive victories during the 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons. The 29-game win streak shattered the ACC and FSU records and was the second-longest streak over the last 20 years and 12th-longest streak in college football history.
- Helped the Seminoles to their 33rd consecutive bowl appearance - the longest active streak in the nation and second all-time to Nebraska's 35. In 2014, FSU advanced to the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal against Oregon in the Rose Bowl. The Noles have an impressive 4-1 record in bowl games under Fisher.
- Guided FSU to its first National Championship win since 1999 and second consecutive Bowl Championship Series victory with a 34-31 victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Vizio BCS National Championship on Jan. 6, 2014 in Pasadena, Calif. FSU finished a perfect 14-0 and ranked No. 1 in both the USA Today Coaches and Associated Press polls for the first time since 1999.

- In 2013, Fisher was named the Rawlings National College Football Coach of the Year and the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year for Region 1 as the Seminoles became the sixth team ever to win 14 games and the first ACC team to accomplish the feat.
- Fisher's 2013 team set a new FBS record for points scored (723) which was previously held by Oklahoma's 2008 team who scored 716 total points. The Noles also set new FSU and ACC records for yards per play (7.67), points per game (51.6), touchdowns (94) and total offensive yards (7,267). The Seminoles' defense led the nation in scoring defense (12.1 points allowed per game) and interceptions (26). The 26 INTs were also an FSU record.
- Has compiled an 11-1 mark against schools from the state of Florida: Miami (5-0), Florida (4-1), USF (1-0) and Bethune Cookman (1-0).
- In 2013 and 2014, he guided FSU to perfect home records (7-0). The Seminoles are 31-4 defending their home turf over his first five seasons. Entering the 2015 season, Florida State has won 14 consecutive games at Doak Campbell Stadium and 19 of its last 20 home contests.
- Florida State has averaged 37.4 points per game since Fisher became the head coach in 2010 (69 games) and outscored opponents by 20.0 points per game (37.4 – 17.4).
- Fisher mentored quarterback Jameis Winston into the top quarterback in the country and Florida State's first-ever No. 1 NFL Draft pick in 2015. Winston became the youngest player to win the Heisman Trophy in 2013 and had arguably the greatest debut season in college football history. Winston set an FBS freshman, ACC and FSU record with 40 touchdown passes in a season and led the nation in pass efficiency (184.8). He finished with 4,057 passing yards and is the first freshman in FBS history to eclipse 4,000 passing yards and toss 40 TD passes. Winston finished his two-year collegiate career with a 26-1 record while tying the FSU record for career 300-yard passing games (14).
- Fisher saw three players win national awards in 2013 including Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Manning Award-winning quarterback Jameis Winston, Lou Groza Award winning-kicker Roberto Aguayo and Rimington Trophy winner Bryan Stork. Stork and Winston also were consensus All-America selections while Lamarcus Joyner was a unanimous All-America selection.

- In 2014, Nick O'Leary collected the John Mackey Award given to the nation's top tight end, while offensive guard Tre' Jackson nabbed unanimous All-America honors. O'Leary and Aguayo were named consensus All-Americans.
- Nine Seminoles have captured consensus All-America honors since Fisher became head coach (2014 – Aguayo, Jackson, O'Leary; 2013 – Joyner, Stork, Winston; 2012 – Werner; 2011 – Powell; 2010 – Hudson).
- Under his guidance the last five seasons, the Seminoles have garnered 59 All-ACC honors (first team, second team, third team or honorable mention).
- Off the field, 69 Seminoles have received degrees since Fisher became head coach.
- Responsible for developing three straight FSU quarterbacks into first-round draft picks, including Christian Ponder, who was the 12th overall pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft, EJ Manuel who was the 16th pick of the Buffalo Bills in the 2013 NFL Draft, and Jameis Winston who became FSU's first-ever No. 1 overall pick to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.
- Has already turned out 36 NFL Draft picks in his first five seasons, including seven first-round draft picks. FSU set a modern day collegiate record with 29 draft picks over a three-year span (2013-15).
- Put together five straight top 10 recruiting classes, including four top five recruiting classes: 2011 class ranking (No. 1 by ESPN.com, No. 1 by Scout.com, No. 2 by Rivals.com, No. 2 by 247Sports.com); 2012 class ranking (No. 2 by ESPN.com, No. 3 by 247Sports.com, No. 6 by Rivals.com); 2013 class ranking (No. 9 by ESPN.com, No. 10 by Rivals.com, No. 10 by 247Sports.com); 2014 class ranking (No. 3 by ESPN.com, No. 3 by Scout.com, No. 4 by Rivals.com, No. 4 by 247Sports.com) and 2015 class ranking (No. 2 by ESPN, No. 3 by Rivals and No. 3 by 247Sports).

The Seminoles captured their third national championship in school history in the final Bowl Championship Series National Championship Game, completing the largest comeback (18 points) in the game's 16-year history to defeat Auburn 34-31. Jameis Winston engineered an 80-yard, game-winning drive and threw the winning two-yard score to Kelvin Benjamin with 13 seconds left.

The 2013 season was truly historic for Fisher and the Seminoles. On offense, Florida State set FSU and ACC records for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67). FSU led the nation with 94 touchdowns, which also was a school and ACC record. Florida State's 42 passing TDs was a school and conference record, while its 42 rushing scores set a new FSU mark.

On defense, FSU led the nation in scoring defense (12.1), pass defense (156.6) and interceptions (26), while ranking third in total defense (281.4). The Seminoles also led the conference in pass defense efficiency (93.8) and ranked third in rushing yards allowed per game (124.8). Only two teams scored more than 17 points against the Seminoles in 2013.

FSU became the sixth team ever to win 14 games and the first ACC team to accomplish the feat. Fisher was named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year for Region 1 in 2013 and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and the Bobby Bowden Coach of the Year awards.

The Noles opened the season with Winston completing the first 11 passes of his career as Florida State cruised past Pitt on the road. A few weeks later, FSU dominated a No. 25-ranked Maryland team to the tune of 63-0 – tying the all-time mark for margin of victory against a ranked opponent in college football history. Next, it was defensive back Lamarcus Joyner silencing Death Valley by forcing a fumble on No. 3 Clemson's first offensive play and forcing three turnovers in a 51-14 win.

Against No. 7 Miami, running back Devonta Freeman sliced through the Hurricanes' defense for 176 total yards and three touchdowns in a 41-14 victory in front of the all-time largest crowd in Doak Campbell Stadium history (84,409).

The Seminoles made a school-record-tying six interceptions and forced seven total turnovers at Wake Forest and held the Demon Deacons to just 166 yards of total offense. FSU totaled a school-record 80 points and Timmy Jernigan tallied 4.5 tackles for loss versus Idaho.

Benjamin capped the perfect regular season with a spectacular 212 yards receiving against Florida's top-five pass defense.

Winston accounted for three touchdowns and over 300 yards passing against Duke in the ACC Championship Game.

And, of course, there were several standout performances in the BCS National Championship Game versus Auburn: Telvin's Smith's 15 tackles, P.J. Williams' momentum-shifting interception, Kermit Whitfield's 100-yard kick return touchdown and Winston's game-winning toss to Benjamin to give Florida State the national championship.

Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while also nabbing the Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year honor and consensus All-America honors. He became the first freshman to win ACC Player of the Year honors and set the conference, FSU and national freshman record for single-season touchdown passes (40). Winston also broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057).

In addition to Winston's numerous accolades, center Bryan Stork won the Rimington Trophy awarded to the nation's top center, while Aguayo nabbed the Lou Groza Award and All-America honors. Joyner collected unanimous All-America honors and was a finalist for the Jim Thorpe and Bronko Nagurski awards.

The unprecedented success of the 2013 season came on the heels of FSU having an ACC-record 11 Seminoles selected in the NFL Draft and losing several key assistant coaches, who not only became hot commodities themselves after FSU's success in Fisher's first three seasons, but also received coaching promotions.

EARLY SUCCESS AT THE HELM

In 2012, Florida State's defense led the nation in yards allowed per play (3.86) and ranked second nationally in total defense (254.14 ypg), while the offense churned out a then-school record of 6,591 total yards and 40 rushing touchdowns, which would only be surpassed by the 2013 squad.

The 2012 team, Fisher's third as FSU's head coach, had a league-leading 12 Seminoles split between All-ACC First and Second Teams, while another four 'Noles garnered honorable mention honors. With a win over Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship Game and a win over Northern Illinois in the Orange Bowl, FSU closed the year ranked No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 10 in the Associated Press poll, cashing in on its nation-leading 31st consecutive bowl appearance.

Quarterback EJ Manuel capped off his senior year with one of the most memorable seasons in FSU history, not only finishing as the most accurate passer in FSU history, but ranking among the top five Seminole quarterbacks all-time for passing yards (7,736, 4th), total offense (8,563, 3rd), completions (600, 4th) and attempts (897, 5th), despite only two seasons as the full-time starter.

Two-time Lou Groza Award Finalist Dustin Hopkins not only became the ACC and FSU all-time leading scorer in 2012, but also the NCAA FBS all-time leader for scoring as a kicker, finishing his career with 466 points. That came one year after Shawn Powell's departure as a consensus All-America punter.

Fisher wrapped up his second season at the helm of the FSU program in 2011 by guiding the Seminoles to a 9-4 record, capped by their 18-14 victory over Notre Dame in front of a Champs Sports Bowl record crowd. Florida State ranked No. 23 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls after rallying in its 30th consecutive bowl appearance. It was a fitting finish to a season that saw the Seminoles successfully defend their state title, sweeping both Miami and Florida for a second consecutive season - something that had not been done since the 1998 and 1999 seasons.

The Seminoles displayed tremendous resolve throughout the 2011 campaign, winning seven of their final eight games after getting off to an injury-riddled, 2-3 start. Receiver Rashad Greene burst onto the scene in limited game action and put together one of the best seasons ever by an FSU freshman. Greene posted the second-most receptions (38), receiving touchdowns (7) and third-most receiving yards (596) by an FSU freshman and ranked among the top five freshmen nationally in receiving touchdowns. That, coupled with Devonta Freeman's freshman campaign in 2011 which saw him run for the most yards (579) by a freshman since Travis Minor in 1997, showed that Fisher's offenses continue to be a force to reckon with in college football. Success in the NFL Draft also continued to pick up steam as Nigel Bradham was FSU's highest 2012 NFL Draft selection, going in the fourth round to the Buffalo Bills.

JIMBO FISHER

Florida State's success under Fisher has not been unexpected. Fisher set the standard for expectations in his first season, delivering the Seminoles back to a place of national prominence with a 10-4 record in 2010. FSU capped the season with a 26-17 win over No. 19 South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl and finished at No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. In addition to their season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, the Seminoles won the ACC Atlantic Division title en route to their first 10-win season since 2003.

Fisher won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and tied for the second-most by a rookie coach in ACC history. He was named the 2010 Football Writers Association of America's Freshman All-America Team Coach.

Three of his players in 2010 earned All-America honors: offensive guard Rodney Hudson (consensus All-America selection), Brandon Jenkins and Xavier Rhodes. Rhodes was named the ACC Rookie of the Year and National Defensive Freshman of the Year. Fisher capped off the 2010 season with three seniors selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, led by his 11th NFL quarterback prodigy in Ponder - the No. 12 overall pick in the draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Ponder at the time became the highest offensive player to go for the Noles since offensive lineman Alex Barron in 2005. Before Ponder, Gary Huff was the highest drafted FSU QB as the 33rd overall pick in the second round of the 1973 draft.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS FORGED FORWARD THINKING VISION

While maintaining the core values that legendary coach Bobby Bowden instilled over the course of his 34 seasons in Tallahassee, Fisher has a simple explanation for the sweeping changes he has brought to the program: You don't run a business the same way today as you did 5-10 years ago.

He has carefully crafted his vision by borrowing from two men - Nick Saban and Bowden - he worked under. Their influence, though very different, can be seen sprinkled throughout Fisher's own blueprint for success. Fisher has not wasted any time putting his stamp on the Seminoles. From assembling a staff of seasoned, ambitious assistants, to dramatically overhauling the program's infrastructure, he has left no stone unturned. His attention to every aspect of the program - from strength & conditioning, GPS monitoring, nutrition, mental training, academic support, talent evaluation and recruiting, player development and peer mentoring among teammates - is centered on establishing an unshakeable foundation that emphasizes the whole development of each player, and it's why Florida State was crowned national champions in just his fourth year.

- Jimbo and Candi Fisher announced on Aug. 5, 2011 the creation of Kidz1stFund, a new national foundation to raise awareness and research funds for a cure for Fanconi anemia, a very rare life-threatening condition that affects their 10-year-old son, Ethan, and many others.

- Fanconi anemia is a hereditary anemia, primarily a blood disease that can affect all systems in the body and lead to bone marrow failure and cancer. For decades, the disorder was thought to be untreatable, but promising advances in medical research have improved the prognosis. To extend their lives, most children fighting Fanconi anemia will require a stem cell transplant, either bone marrow or cord blood, yet many wait years to find a donor who is a perfect match - or never find one.

- Money raised through a campaign called "I Fight Fanconi" supports Fanconi anemia research at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital's Fanconi Anemia Comprehensive Care Program, one of the leading facilities pioneering better ways to treat the disorder, in advance of finding a cure. The campaign raises research dollars for the Kidz1stFund through the sale of t-shirts, wristbands and other products, through online donations, and with generous financial support from a special group of philanthropists. Since 2011, the fund has donated over $3 million towards FA research at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital, the largest FA treatment center in the country.

- Fisher's players have also gotten involved. Former tight end Kevin Haplea orchestrated the creation of a chapter of Uplifting Athletes at Florida State in 2013 to help bring awareness to FA and add support to Kidz1stFund. Uplifting Athletes is a non-profit organization that raises awareness and funds for rare and under-served diseases. The organization has a liaison at the national chapter but is run at each school solely by football student-athletes who are not only responsible for the organization of their particular chapter but for the marketing and fund-raising efforts as well.

- Kidz1stFund provides support to families affected by FA, provides education and awareness about this disease, and raises money for Fanconi anemia research with the goal of finding a cure.

- Kidz1stFund's ultimate goal is not a dollar figure. It is a cure, so that Ethan and other kids with Fanconi anemia may lead full, happy lives. Together we can fight FA for the thousands affected by this disease. Through your gift to Kidz1stFund, we can all say "I FIGHT FANCONI."

- The Fishers continue to encourage everyone to join the National Marrow Donor Registry to determine if they are a match for any of the thousands of people whose lives depend on a bone marrow transplant. Kidz1stFund hosts many bone marrow donor drives throughout the year, and has registered thousands of new potential donors. Their annual Florida State All-Athlete Bone Marrow Donor Drive event is a huge success. Amazingly, two members of the Marching Chiefs donated their stem cells in 2014 to save two lives and at least four other individuals registered at Kidz1stFund drives have been matched and gone on to help those in need. The Fisher Family

Yet the greatest influences in Fisher's life have been his parents, John James and Gloria Fisher. His late father, a coal miner and farmer who demanded accountability from sons Jimbo and Bryan, helped them understand the value of hard work from an early age. Those lessons extended beyond the family farm and home and onto the fields and courts as a promising young football, basketball and baseball player.

By the time Fisher reached junior high school and became the starting quarterback, he was calling plays in the huddle. Win or lose, the car rides home with his father always included a critique of what transpired on the field.

Fisher learned about tough love from his father, but his future was also shaped by his mother, who retired in 2011 from the West Virginia public schools system after teaching high school chemistry for 51 years. It was Gloria who made sure that her son escaped from a life in the coal mines and followed his dream after an all-state career at Liberty High School.

He has done both and with a high degree of success. After a one-semester stop at Clemson, where he was going to play baseball, Fisher returned home to Salem College in West Virginia. He starred for three seasons at quarterback, establishing a school and conference record for career passing yardage. A two-time conference player of the year and an All-American in his final season at Salem, Fisher transferred to Samford College in Birmingham, Alabama, for his final season of eligibility. He enjoyed a record-setting season in 1987 with the Bulldogs, earning NCAA Division III National Player of the Year honors, which he parlayed into a season with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League.

RIISING THROUGH THE COACHING RANKS

In 1993, Fisher joined the staff at Auburn and over the next 14 seasons, including stops at Cincinnati and LSU, he built a reputation as a keen play-caller whose development of quarterbacks was second to none in major college football. His list of standout pupils included record-setters Stan White, Patrick Nix and Dameyune Craig, who is the lone 3,000-yard passer in Auburn history. After guiding Cincinnati to one of its most prolific seasons in a one-year stint, Fisher joined Saban's staff at LSU. Over the course of a seven-year run with the Tigers, quarterbacks Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck, JaMarcus Russell and Matt Flynn were selected in the NFL Draft. Russell, who was the first player selected in the 2007 NFL Draft, and Davey were the first two 3,000-yard passers in LSU history.

LSU made seven consecutive bowl appearances, won two SEC titles, posted a 70-20 record and won the 2003 BCS National Championship with Fisher as its offensive coordinator. He was a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Fisher accepted Bobby Bowden's invitation to join the Florida State staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January 2007 and by the end of his first year was tabbed as Bowden's successor upon retirement. The quick ascent followed a similar arc to the Seminoles' offense, which improved statistically in each of his first four seasons.

Along the way he has significantly impacted FSU's recruiting, been instrumental in the development of quarterbacks Ponder, Manuel and Winston and set the table for the inevitable transition to the seat occupied by Bowden since 1976. The time as a coach-in-waiting allowed him the opportunity to closely evaluate the players and program as a whole; what changes needed to be made and how to work the proper channels to get that accomplished.

After having the longest tenured coaching staff in college football in 2012, Fisher had several holes to fill in that offseason but he put together another top staff with more than combined 100 years of collegiate coaching experience. The results – the 2013 national championship and three ACC championships – speak for themselves.

FAMILY FIRST

Fisher's sons, Trey and Ethan, are regular visitors in the football office. Trey follows his dad's same gameday routine which is highlighted by running out of the tunnel on Saturdays. He and Ethan are heavily involved in community sports and spend the most time on the baseball diamond. The Fishers took a trip to Cooperstown, N.Y. - the home of the National Baseball Hall of Fame - during the summer of 2013 to cheer on Trey and the Tallahassee Next Level Tribe who played in the prestigious American Youth Baseball Hall of Fame Invitational Tournament.

Fisher treats his players very much like his own family, challenging, praising, even admonishing, when necessary. It is all in an attempt to help each and every one reach their full potential as student-athletes and responsible young adults.

Fisher wants relentless competitors to define his Florida State program; players who are immune to adversity.

As a hands-on head coach who will continue to work with the quarterbacks and call plays, Fisher will remain a vocal presence on the field, while balancing a myriad of off-the-field responsibilities as he continues to shape the Florida State program in his own image.

Fisher will do that with a sense of responsibility and appreciation for Florida State's rich past and the men - Bowden and the players who have come before those he coaches today - who have built the program.

Not surprisingly, he has welcomed those players back with open arms in an effort to bridge the past with the present and future.

It's that rich tradition that drew Fisher to Florida State and his time under Bowden. He's built on it thus far, and delivered the program's third national championship. The challenge now is to stay at the top of the mountain. It's a challenge Fisher is equipped for and wholeheartedly accepts.

• Charles Kelly enters his third season at Florida State and his second as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2015. Kelly coached linebackers and served as the special teams coordinator during the Seminoles' undefeated national championship season in 2013.

• Kelly's defense in 2014 led the Seminoles to the first-ever College Football Playoff and helped continue Florida State's program-record 29-game winning streak.

• The Noles' defense proved to be one of the nation's best at making second-half adjustments as FSU made five fourth-quarter comebacks in 2014. FSU also ranked in the Top 20 nationally in opponent red zone conversions. The Seminoles held eight of nine ACC opponents to fewer points in the second half than their first-half total and only allowed four fourth-quarter touchdowns to conference foes.

• Several Florida State defensive players captured national awards in 2014, including safety Jalen Ramsey and cornerback P.J. Williams, who were each named All-Americans. Defensive end Mario Edwards Jr. and defensive tackle Eddie Goldman also collected All-America honors. Ramsey, Williams, Edwards Jr., and Goldman all collected All-ACC First Team honors as well. Linebackers Terrance Smith and Reggie Northrup and cornerback Ronald Darby also grabbed all-conference honors.

• Edwards Jr. (second round, Oakland Raiders), Goldman (second round, Chicago Bears), Darby (second round, Buffalo Bills), and Williams (third round, New Orleans Saints) were all selected in the 2015 NFL Draft.

• Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher promoted Kelly to defensive coordinator in February 2014, following a season where his linebackers helped guide a dominant defense that led the nation in scoring defense (12.1), pass defense (156.6) and interceptions (26), and ranked third in total defense (281.4) in 2013. Only two teams scored more than 17 points against the Seminoles.

• Spearheading Florida State's top-rated defense was a playmaking linebacker corps that featured three all-conference performers. Kelly mentored senior weakside linebacker Telvin Smith's transformation from a valuable reserve into the Seminoles' leading tackler and an All-ACC First Team selection, while maximizing the talent of linebacker/defensive end Christian Jones, who grabbed All-ACC Second Team honors. Additionally, redshirt sophomore middle linebacker Terrance Smith collected honorable mention All-ACC accolades in his first year of significant playing time.

• Telvin Smith finished with 90 tackles and tied an FSU record with two touchdowns on interception returns. His 15-tackle performance against Auburn in the National Championship fueled FSU's comeback win. Jones finished 2013 with 56 stops and Terrance Smith had 59 tackles.

• In 2013, FSU's linebackers helped Florida State rank third in the ACC and 18th in the nation in rushing defense (124.79) and eighth in the country in opponent third down conversions (31.92 conversion percentage).

• Telvin Smith was a fifth round selection (No. 144 overall) of the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2014 NFL Draft and Jones signed a free agent deal with the Chicago Bears and eventually started five games his rookie season.

• Additionally, Kelly led the nation's most prolific special teams units with freshman kicker Roberto Aguayo and freshman kick returner Kermit Whitfield rewriting the ACC and NCAA record books in 2013. Aguayo set the national record for points by a kicker (157) and extra points (94) en route to capturing All-America honors and the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's top kicker. Whitfield returned two kicks for touchdowns, including the 100-yard return that gave FSU the lead in the national championship game. His 36.4 return average shattered the FSU and ACC record and led the nation.

• Kelly came to FSU after seven years as a special teams and defensive backs coach at Georgia Tech. He was elevated to interim defensive coordinator in the sixth game of the 2012 season when the Yellow Jackets had a 2-4 record. After taking over as defensive coordinator, Kelly helped Georgia Tech finish 5-3 (7-7 overall), including a Hyundai Sun Bowl victory over USC. Kelly's defense limited the high-powered Trojan offense to 205 yards and seven points in the bowl win.

• One of the biggest improvements in Tech's defense the last eight games of the season was its play in the second half, specifically in the fourth quarter. In the first six games of the season, Tech allowed an average of 13.3 points in the fourth quarter and in overtime, compared to just 3.9 points in the fourth quarter the final eight games of the season. The Yellow Jackets did not allow a fourth-quarter point in each of their final four games (Duke, Georgia, FSU and USC). The defense shut out both FSU and USC in the second half of those games. Opponents scored 44.2 percent of their points in the fourth quarter and in OT through the first six games of the season, compared to just 14.4 percent of their points in the fourth quarter over the final eight games.

• In 2008, Tech ranked in the top 30 nationally in total defense and scoring defense. In 2009, Kelly helped develop a number of cornerbacks including Mario Butler, a 14-game starter, and Jerrard Tarrant, who picked off two passes, including one for a touchdown in the Orange Bowl. Tarrant was responsible for all four of Tech's non-offensive touchdowns in 2009.

• In 2011, Kelly inherited four new starters in the secondary and molded that youthful unit into a group that helped Georgia Tech rank second in the ACC and 28th nationally in pass defense. With just one senior among the starters, Tech recorded 14 interceptions, six more than the previous season.

• Kelly served as the Yellow Jackets' special teams coordinator in 2006 and 2007. He was instrumental in making Georgia Tech one of the nation's best special teams units in 2007. That group went from 119th in the nation in kick return defense in 2006 to second in 2007. Under Kelly's guidance, punter Durant Brooks and place-kicker Travis Bell each earned first team All-ACC accolades. Brooks earned the prestigious Ray Guy Award in 2007 and recorded the highest career punting average in ACC history. In Kelly's first year in 2006, Brooks earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors.

• Kelly spent the previous four seasons at Nicholls State, an NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) program, which captured the Southland Conference title in 2005.

• Under Kelly, who served as defensive backs coach during his first two seasons at Nicholls, the Colonels finished as the top-ranked defense in the Southland Conference in 2005 and 17th nationally among FCS programs. Nicholls State led the Southland in total defense and rushing defense, while ranking second in scoring defense.

• Kelly was instrumental in developing two-time All-America cornerback Chris Thompson, who was drafted in 2004 by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

• Kelly went to Nicholls State in 2002 from Eufaula (Ala.) High School, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for two seasons. Prior to his move to the high school ranks, the Ozark, Ala., native spent one season (1999) as defensive coordinator at Henderson State and two seasons as defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State.

• Before going to Jacksonville State, Kelly served one year as a graduate assistant at Auburn and was part of the Tigers' 11-0 season in 1993.

• Kelly has coached 14 players that have made it to the NFL, including Edwards Jr., Goldman, Darby, Williams, Smith, Jones, Brooks, Thompson, Delvin Hugley, Calvin Jackson, Chris Schelling, Dell McGee, Jahi Word-Daniels and Mario Butler.

• A 1990 graduate of Auburn with a degree in secondary math education, Kelly played defensive back under former Tiger coach Pat Dye. His senior class put together a four-year record of 39-7-2 while participating in four bowl games. In 2002, Kelly earned a master's degree in education from Troy State.

• Kelly and his wife, Kristy, have three daughters, Caroline, Kathleen and Charli Grace.

• Lawrence Dawsey enters his ninth season coaching wide receivers on the Florida State staff and his second season as co-offensive coordinator. Dawsey added passing game coordinator duties in 2010 and has been instrumental in the offensive game plan as the Seminoles have consistently had one of the nation's best offenses over the last five seasons.

• Dawsey has one of the most impressive playing résumés of any collegiate coach in the country, starting at wide receiver for the Seminoles from 1987-90 before becoming a third-round selection of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. Dawsey enjoyed a seven-season NFL career that included Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year honors.

• Florida State's wide receivers have prospered under Dawsey's direction. In just the last three years, four FSU wide receivers have joined the NFL ranks, including Kelvin Benjamin, who was a first-round selection (No. 28) by the Carolina Panthers in 2014 and Rashad Greene, who was a fifth-round pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2015. Kenny Shaw has spent time on the rosters of the Jaguars, Cleveland Browns and Oakland Raiders, while Rodney Smith has played for the Minnesota Vikings and the Browns entering his third professional season.

• Greene set a myriad of records during the 2014 season, including the single season receptions (99), career receptions (270), career receiving yards (3,830), and consecutive games with a catch (43) records. The career receiving yardage mark is also an ACC record. Quarterback Jameis Winston's favorite target during their two seasons together, Greene ended his Seminole career with 15 100-yard receiving games, including a career-high 203 yards in the 2014 season opener against Oklahoma State. Greene was a two-time All-ACC First Team selection and an All-American in 2014.

• The Seminoles averaged 33.7 points and 441.4 total yards per game in 2014 under a balanced attack that saw Winston lead the ACC with 3,907 passing yards and 25 touchdowns, while also having running back Dalvin Cook register an FSU freshman-record 1,008 rushing yards. Senior tight end Nick O'Leary caught 48 passes for 618 yards and seven touchdowns and won the John Mackey Award given to the nation's top tight end.

• Sophomore Jesus Wilson (42 receptions, 527 yards and four TDs) and freshman Travis Rudolph (38 receptions, 555 yards, four TDs) also had breakthrough seasons at the wide receiver position in 2014 and will be expected to lead the 2015 receiving corps.

• The 2013 season may have been the most productive for Seminole pass-catchers all-time as Greene, Benjamin and Shaw led a record-breaking offense. Greene (1,128 receiving yards) and Benjamin (1,011) became the first Florida State receivers to gain 1,000 yards in 11 years (Anquan Boldin, 1,011, 2002). The duo became just the second pair of Gamet and Gold wide receivers to cross the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season, joining E.G. Green and Andre Cooper in 1995. Greene led the Noles with 76 receptions and scored nine touchdowns en route to All-ACC First Team honors. The 6-5, 234-pound Benjamin proved to be one of the nation's most dangerous red zone threats in just his second season on the field, leading the ACC with 15 touchdown receptions, including the game-winning scoring grab in the BCS National Championship Game. He captured Sports Illustrated.com All-America First Team accolades and was named to the All-ACC Second Team by the coaches and the All-ACC Third Team by the media. Shaw collected All-ACC Third Team accolades from the coaches and All-ACC honorable mention honors from the media after catching 54 balls for 933 yards and six touchdowns. Florida State set the FSU and ACC records for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67) in addition to the national record for points (723). FSU led the nation with 94 touchdowns, which also was a school and ACC record. Florida State's 42 passing scores marked a school and conference record.

• In Dawsey's role as the passing game coordinator, he and the wide receiver unit had direct roles in helping Winston complete one of the greatest seasons by a collegiate quarterback in 2013. Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while also nabbing the Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year honor and consensus All-America honors. He became the first freshman to win ACC Player of the Year honors and set the conference, FSU and national freshman record for single-season touchdown passes (40). Winston also broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057). Winston became FSU's first-ever No. 1 overall NFL Draft pick when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him in 2015.

• In 2012, Greene captured honorable mention All-ACC honors as a sophomore and was an SI.com honorable mention All-American after leading the Seminoles with 57 receptions for 741 yards and six touchdown catches. Smith capped his four-year career by setting the FSU record for consecutive games with a reception (39). He finished his career with 106 receptions for 1,540 yards and 10 touchdowns. Following the season, Smith signed a professional contract with the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted free agent.

• In 2011, six different receivers averaged better than 11 yards per reception for a passing offense that produced 25 TD receptions and 3,341 yards through 13 games. Dawsey guided Greene, FSU's leading receiver, to one of the best freshman campaigns in FSU history as he posted the second-most receptions (38), receiving touchdowns (7) and third-most receiving yards (596). He ranked among the top five freshmen nationally in receiving touchdowns. Senior Bert Reed left Florida State after four years under Dawsey's tutelage among the top five Seminoles in career receptions and top 15 Seminoles in career receiving yards.

• In 2009, Dawsey tutored Rod Owens and Reed who became the first pair of Seminole receivers to collect at least 60 receptions each in the same season since 1995. Owens (61) and Reed (60) joined the prolific '95 tandem of Cooper (71) and Green (60) as the only duos to match that standard in program history.

• FSU's wideouts also had a hand in quarterbacks Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel becoming first round NFL draft picks. Ponder was selected with the 12th overall pick by the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft, while Manuel was the first signal-caller off the board in the 2013 Draft, going 16th overall to the Buffalo Bills.

• In 2007, Dawsey's first season, Florida State boasted three receivers - Preston Parker, De'Cody Fagg and Greg Carr - with 700 or more receiving yards for the first time in school history.

• Beyond the playing field, Dawsey has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He's picked up the Seminoles' efforts in the Tampa area and helped FSU attract a Top 5 recruiting class in four of the last five years. In 2015, he was selected as one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals and one of the ACC's Top 10 recruiters, titles he also earned in 2011 and 2012. He was also selected as one of the top 50 recruiters in the country by 247Sports in 2012, 2013 and 2015, and one of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011. Additionally, Dawsey was named the 2011 ACC Recruiter of the Year by SI.com.

• Dawsey's first coaching job came as a high school assistant at Tampa Catholic in 1998. He did not return to the sideline until serving as a training camp assistant coach with the NFL's St. Louis Rams in 2001 and returned to the high school ranks in 2002 at Blake in Tampa.

• He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant on Nick Saban's LSU staff, where he worked with Jimbo Fisher. The Tigers posted a 13-1 record and won the BCS National Championship.

• Dawsey was an integral part of the Seminole football dynasty as a player. His four seasons at wide receiver corresponded with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by FSU. As a player, he was known for his work ethic, accountability, precision route-running, down-field blocking and the ability to rise to the occasion in big games. Those are the same qualities he has instilled in his current group of receivers.

• A third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991, Dawsey enjoyed a seven-season NFL career. He also played for the New York Giants (1996), Miami Dolphins (1997) and New Orleans Saints (1999).

• Dawsey was named the NFL Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated and named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1991 after he led Tampa Bay with 55 receptions and set the club's rookie record with 818 receiving yards. Dawsey also led the team in receptions (60) and receiving yards (776) in 1992.

• Dawsey's family also has enjoyed success as well. His stepdaughter Dominique Arce is an FSU graduate and earned her M.D. at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tenn. She is an Anesthesiologist at Brigham and Women's Hospital - a Harvard University Hospital. He and his wife, Chantal, also have a son, Lawrence, Jr., who will be a senior in high school in IB (International Baccalaureate Program).

• Randy Sanders enters his third season as quarterbacks coach at Florida State and his second as the co-offensive coordinator. During his first two seasons, Sanders oversaw the development of Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston as he guided the Seminoles to a 26-1 record and the 2013 National Championship during their two seasons together. An 11-year offensive coordinator in the SEC at Tennessee and Kentucky, Sanders also won a national championship in 1998 with the Vols.

• Under the tutelage of Sanders, Winston became the youngest Heisman Trophy winner in 2013, the same season he led the Seminoles to a 14-0 record and Florida State's third national championship. During that historic 2013 season, Florida State set the national record for points in a season with 723, led the nation with a passing efficiency mark of 174.69, and set school and ACC marks with 7,267 yards of total offense, 51.6 points per game, 94 touchdowns, and 7.67 yards per play. Winston set the national record for touchdown passes by a freshman with 40, had seven 300-yard games and 11 consecutive games scoring 40 points or more.

• After a 2014 season that saw the Seminoles start the season 13-0 and reach the inaugural College Football Playoff, Winston entered the 2015 NFL Draft and was taken with the No. 1 overall selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He became the first Seminole to be the first player selected in the draft. Winston finished his two-year career with touchdown passes in all 27 games played, third in career passing yards (7,964), second in career touchdown passes (65), tied with fellow Heisman winner Chris Weinke with 14 career 300-yard games, the third-most wins for a starting quarterback in school history with 26, and his .963 winning percentage (26-1) is the best among Florida State starters.

• The Seminoles averaged 33.7 points and 441.4 total yards per game in 2014 under a balanced attack that saw Winston lead the ACC with 3,907 passing yards and 25 touchdowns, while also having running back Dalvin Cook register an FSU freshman-record 1,008 rushing yards. Senior tight end Nick O'Leary caught 48 passes for 618 yards and seven touchdowns and won the John Mackey Award given to the nation's top tight end.

• Sanders joined the Seminoles after a stint at Kentucky where he was the Wildcats' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach since 2009. The Morristown, Tenn., native previously spent his entire coaching career in the SEC where he began as a volunteer assistant with the Volunteers in 1989. Sanders has served as the offensive coordinator at both Tennessee and Kentucky and has been a part of coaching staffs that have been to 23 bowl games in his coaching career, including the 1999 National Championship game at Tennessee where he served as the offensive coordinator for the Fiesta Bowl win over FSU that year.

• Upon his arrival at Kentucky in 2006, Sanders helped Andre' Woodson develop from an inconsistent performer into one of the top quarterbacks in the nation. Seemingly overnight, Woodson blossomed as a player and a field general, leading the Wildcats to some of the most memorable triumphs in school history, including a pair of Music City Bowl championships.

• Along the way, Woodson led the Southeastern Conference in passing yardage, total offense and touchdown passes, including an SEC record 40 in 2007. He earned All-SEC honors both seasons and was drafted by the NFL's New York Giants.

• Sanders turned in another deft coaching performance in 2009. Mike Hartline was the starting quarterback until going down with an injury in the fifth game. For the remainder of the season, Sanders juggled Randall Cobb, seldom-used junior Will Fidler and true freshman Morgan Newton at QB. And, once again, the offense produced enough points to advance to a bowl game, along with ground-breaking victories at Auburn and Georgia.

• Prior to Kentucky, Sanders spent 22 seasons (1984-2005) as a player and coach at Tennessee, including the last seven as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was named offensive coordinator after the 1998 regular season when David Cutcliffe became head coach at Ole Miss. Sanders' first game as offensive coordinator was the 1999 Fiesta Bowl when the Volunteers defeated Florida State for the national championship.

• Sanders was a quarterback on the Tennessee football team from 1984-88. He earned four varsity letters and was a four-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He remained with the team as a volunteer assistant coach, helping coach the quarterbacks in 1989-90 under head coach Johnny Majors.

• Sanders was promoted to a full-time assistant coach at Tennessee in 1991, working with the wide receivers in 1991-92. New head coach Phillip Fulmer named him running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 1993. Sanders stayed in those roles through '98, recruiting the players that took Tennessee to the national title, before moving to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following Cutcliffe's departure.

• While Sanders was on the Tennessee coaching staff, the Vols had a record of 162-46-2 (.776) and won four SEC championships and six Eastern Division crowns in addition to their national title. The Vols played in bowl games his first 16 seasons, including four Citrus Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, three Cotton Bowls, two Peach Bowls, and once each in the Sugar, Orange, Hall of Fame and Gator bowls.

• Sanders and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Kelly and Kari.

• Odell Haggins was promoted to associate head coach in 2014 and is the longest-tenured member of the Florida State coaching staff entering his 22nd season at the school where he starred on the defensive line from 1986-89. He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach in 1994 with the Seminoles and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture and helped the Seminoles to a pair of national titles in 1999 and 2013.

• Haggins has repeatedly developed future NFL pro's while at Florida State. He has coached 17 defensive linemen that have been selected in the NFL Draft, including recent second-round picks Eddie Goldman (Chicago Bears, 2015) and Timmy Jernigan (Baltimore Ravens, 2014) and first-rounders Broderick Bunkley (2006), Travis Johnson (2005), Corey Simon (2000) and Andre Wadsworth (1998).

• In 2014, Haggins oversaw a young interior defensive front line anchored by defensive tackle Goldman. Despite the youth on the defensive front, the Seminole defense still ranked in the top 30 in the country in six different categories. Goldman tallied a team-high 4.0 sacks, 8.0 tackles for loss and 35 total stops. He captured All-America Third Team honors from the Associated Press and was an All-ACC First Team selection. The Seminoles advanced to the first-ever College Football Playoff, set a Florida State record with a 29-game winning streak and captured the program's third straight Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. After starting nose tackle Nile Lawrence-Stamper was injured in the season's third game, Haggins got great production from redshirt junior Derrick Mitchell Jr. (20 tackles), senior Desmond Hollin (33 tackles, 4.0 TFLs) and true freshman Derrick Nnadi (18 tackles, 1.5 TFLs).

• A staunch interior defense played a prominent role in helping Florida State to its third national championship in the 2013 season. Jernigan, the Noles' star nose guard, enjoyed another fine season as he earned All-America nods from several organizations including the Football Writers Association of America, Associated Press and USA TODAY. The high-powered run-stuffer in the trenches led a defensive front that surrendered just seven rushing touchdowns, the fewest in the nation. Florida State's defensive tackles paved the way for the nation's top scoring defense (12.1 ppg) and the third-best total defense (281.4 ypg). The work of the front four was noticeable on several fronts, including allowing just 124.8 yards per game by opposing rushers. Opponents averaged just 3.3 yards per rush against the stout defensive front of the Seminoles, and FSU continued its strong pass rush, racking up 35 sacks in 2013.

• Following the 2013 season, Jernigan was the 48th overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Ravens, while two other veteran standout defensive tackles, Jacobbi McDaniel (Browns) and Demonte McAllister (Seahawks), signed professional contracts as free agents.

• The 2012 season was another banner year for Haggins' charges on the interior defensive line as three Seminole defensive tackles earned All-ACC honors with senior Everett Dawkins and sophomore Jernigan capturing All-ACC Second Team honors, while senior Anthony McCloud picked up All-ACC Honorable Mention accolades. In part due to suffocating pressure up front, the Seminoles ranked second in the nation in total defense in 2012, yielding just 254.14 yards per contest.

• The 'Noles also ranked first in the nation in pass efficiency defense (95.43), pass defense (161.86), third in rushing defense (92.29) and sixth in scoring defense (14.71) in 2012. FSU allowed opposing running backs just 2.75 yards per carry, which ranked in a tie for fourth in the country. The core of Dawkins, Jernigan, McCloud and McAllister combined to register 129 tackles, including 15.5 for loss.

• Haggins has been able to build depth with his interior defensive line group that at one point in 2011 was four-deep at each position. That season, his regular rotation of McCloud, Dawkins, Cameron Erving and freshman All-American Jernigan produced 100 tackles, including 16.5 behind the line of scrimmage. FSU's run defense allowed opposing backs to average just 2.35 yards per carry, which led all 120 FBS programs. The Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0), second in rushing defense (82.69), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game). The Seminoles led the ACC in eight different defensive categories. Jernigan earned first team freshman All-American honors from several publications after posting 30 tackles, six tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks.

• Haggins helped produce one of the best defensive lines in the nation in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks, 21st in tackles for loss and 42nd in total defense. The Seminoles tied with Boise State for first nationally in total sacks with 48. Three of his defensive tackles - Dawkins, McCloud and McDaniel - were among the top 15 tacklers on the team.

• Named one of the six best defensive line coaches in college football by CBS Sports columnist Dennis Dodd in 2008, Haggins has repeatedly turned out top-flight talent with Bunkley, Johnson, Simon and Wadsworth all being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. The No. 3 overall pick (Arizona) in the 1998 draft, Wadsworth remained the highest drafted player in FSU history until Jameis Winston was selected No. 1 overall in 2015.

• In addition to the first-rounders, Haggins' pupils have also included Pro Bowler Darnell Dockett (third round) - whom he recruited and mentored - Larry Smith (second), Andre Fluellen (third), Jerry Johnson (fourth), Julian Pittman (fourth) and Letroy Guion (fifth). Most recently, Goldman was selected with the 39th pick in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

• Haggins has won at every level as a player and a coach. He was on the front end of Florida State's dynasty years, starring at nose guard for the Seminoles. FSU posted a 39-8-1 record with Haggins in the lineup from 1986-89 and he was part of four bowl-winning teams. He earned Kodak, Walter Camp and UPI All-American honors as a senior in 1989.

• A ninth-round pick in the 1990 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, Haggins went on to play for the Buffalo Bills during their 1991 Super Bowl season. Following a three-year NFL career, he returned to Florida State, completed his degree and joined Bobby Bowden's staff following the Seminoles' 1993 national championship season.

• As an assistant coach, Haggins has established himself as an outstanding recruiter, developer of talent and a role model to his players. He earned ACC Top Recruiter of the Year honors from ESPN in 2012. For the fourth consecutive year, Haggins was named one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2014. He has been a part of FSU staffs which have posted a 208-62 record with 21 consecutive bowl appearances.

• Haggins' 1999 defensive front included future NFL standouts Corey Simon and Jerry Johnson, who were instrumental in FSU's 12-0 run to the national championship.

• The Seminoles boasted the nation's top-ranked defense in 1998 and the No. 1 rushing defense in 1996 and 1997. The 2008 defense ranked first nationally in tackles for loss.

• Haggins and his wife, Robin, have one daughter, Amelia Grace.

• One of the top and most respected offensive line coaches in all of college football, Rick Trickett will enter his ninth season at Florida State and his 43rd overall in 2015. He is nationally recognized for his ability to identify, recruit and develop talent. The 2013 and 2014 seasons proved that Trickett was not only one of the top offensive line coaches in the nation, but one of the best assistant coaches in college football as the Seminole offensive line served as the foundation for the highest scoring offense in college football history, a 29-game winning streak, and an undefeated national championship season.

• In 2014, the Seminoles returned four of five starters from the BCS National Championship win against Auburn. The line helped open holes throughout the season, including allowing true freshman Dalvin Cook to break the 1,000-yard barrier, the first freshman in Seminole history to reach that milestone. Along with Cook, senior tailback Karlos Williams scored 11 rushing touchdowns for the second consecutive season and left Florida State with the ninth-most touchdowns in school history. Trickett also presided over the move by All-American Cameron Erving from left tackle to center for the final five games of 2014, opening a spot for true freshman Roderick Johnson at left tackle. Johnson collected several freshman All-America honors, while Erving earned First Team All-ACC honors at left tackle and Second (media) and Third (coaches) Team honors at center.

• Senior guard Tre' Jackson was named a unanimous All-American in 2014 and the South Team MVP in the Senior Bowl. Jackson collected All-ACC First Team three consecutive years. Erving was named the ACC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner for the second straight season. Trickett's linemen have won the Jacobs Trophy four times in the last six years, as Rodney Hudson captured the honor in 2009 and 2010.

• In 2014, senior guard Josue Matias nabbed All-ACC Second Team honors from the media and Third Team accolades from the coaches, while senior right tackle Bobby Hart was an All-ACC Third Team selection.

• All five starters from the 2013 team have signed NFL contracts, including Stork (2014 fourth round by the Patriots), Erving (2015 first round by the Browns), Jackson (2015 fourth round by the Patriots), and Hart (2015 seventh round by the Giants). Matias signed as an undrafted free agent with the Tennessee Titans. Stork became just the second player in Florida State history (after William Floyd) to win a national championship and Super Bowl in consecutive seasons after starting Super Bowl XLIX for the Patriots. They join recent Trickett protégés Menelek Watson (Oakland Raiders), Zebrie Sanders (Buffalo Bills) and Hudson (Oakland Raiders) on NFL rosters.

• In 2013, Stork captured consensus All-America honors and won the Rimington Trophy given to the nation's top center. Stork became the second Trickett-coached player to earn the Rimington, joining 2006 winner Dan Mozes of West Virginia. In addition to his numerous All-America accolades that included first team honors from the Football Writers Association of America and the Associated Press, Stork nabbed All-ACC First Team honors from the media and coaches. Erving was tabbed an All-American by countless outlets including USA Today (2013-First Team), Associated Press (2013-Second Team), Walter Camp (2013-Second Team), and CBSSports.com (2014-First Team).

• The 2012 season was FSU's most productive offensive season until the 2013 campaign and Trickett's offensive line was vital to Florida State's success. The Seminoles set a then-FSU record with 6,591 yards of total offense and surpassed 500 yards of total offense six times behind a front line in which all five starters captured all-conference honors. Florida State rolled to its first ACC title since 2005 and an Orange Bowl victory behind Erving (All-ACC Second Team), Stork (All-ACC Second Team), Jackson (All-ACC Second Team), Watson (All-ACC Honorable Mention) and Matias (All-ACC Honorable Mention). Florida State ranked second in the ACC in rushing offense (206.21) and third in total offense (471.50) and scoring offense (39.29).

• In 2010, Trickett's line featured Hudson, who became one of the most decorated offensive linemen in school and ACC history, earning unanimous first team All-America honors in 2010. Hudson was one of three finalists for the Outland

Trophy, won his second consecutive Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's most dominant lineman and was only the second lineman in league history to be selected All-ACC four times.

• From 2002-2006, West Virginia finished among the top 15 rushing offenses and three times were among the top five nationally behind Trickett-coached lines. In 2006, the Mountaineers were second in the nation in rushing, third in scoring offense and fifth in total offense.

• More than 35 players Trickett has coached have gone on to play in the NFL and more than 35 players have won all-conference honors, including four of his five linemen at West Virginia in 2005 and 2006 and all five Seminole starters in 2012 and 2013. At LSU in 2000, three of his players earned All-SEC honors.

• Trickett earned his undergraduate degree in 1972 from Glenville (W.Va.), where he was an all-conference strong safety. He received his master's degree from Indiana (Pa.) in 1975.

• Trickett is a U.S. Marine Corps and Vietnam War veteran.

• Trickett released a book in 2012. "Complete Offensive Line" is a comprehensive guide to the techniques, drills and game strategies necessary to develop an effective offensive front.

• The Tricketts have been a fixture on the FSU campus since Rick's 2007 arrival in Tallahassee. All three of Tara and Rick's sons have been involved in the football program with Travis serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 after serving as a videographer. He received his master's degree from FSU and is now the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Samford University. Travis and his wife, Tiffany, have a 1-year-old son, Maverick. Clint spent three years as a quarterback for the Noles, graduated with a degree in social science and two seasons at West Virginia, where he passed for 4,890 yards and 25 touchdowns for the Mountaineers. Clint is now the quarterbacks coach at East Mississippi Community College. Chance graduated from FSU in spring 2011 with his bachelor's degree and worked in the FSU recruiting office. Chance is now the Director of Recruiting at Louisiana Tech.

• Tim Brewster enters his third season as the Seminoles' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2015. During the Seminoles 29-game winning streak that included a national championship in his first season in 2013, Brewster helped develop tight end Nick O'Leary into the nation's top tight end. He also helped return the Seminoles to a recruiting powerhouse with consecutive top-three recruiting classes according to ESPN.

• In 2014, O'Leary won the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and was a consensus All-American. O'Leary became the top tight end in Seminole history and one of the best in ACC history from 2013-14. O'Leary finished with 618 yards receiving and six touchdowns on 48 catches en route to All-ACC First Team honors in 2014, after hauling in 33 receptions for 557 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013. Overall, O'Leary left Florida State as the school leader in every category among Seminole tight ends, including receptions (114), yards (1,591) and touchdowns (18). O'Leary was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

• In 2013, O'Leary was a dominant force on a Florida State squad that set the national record for points (723). One of three finalists for the Mackey Award, O'Leary was named to the All-ACC Second Team and All-America Third Team from CBSsports.com and Lindy's. O'Leary averaged 16.9 yards per catch - a mark that led all tight ends in the nation and 27 of his 33 receptions went for a touchdown or a first down. In addition to helping the Seminoles set the national points mark, O'Leary's blocking and receiving talents helped the Noles set the FSU and ACC record for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67), while leading the country with 94 touchdowns.

• O'Leary also helped pave the way for the Seminoles ground game, opening up holes for Devonta Freeman, Dalvin Cook, and Karlos Williams over the past two seasons. Freeman (1,016 in 2013) and Cook (1,008 in 2014) were the first 1,000-yard rushers for the Seminoles since Warrick Dunn in 1996, while Williams accumulated 22 rushing touchdowns in his only two seasons at the running back position after switching from defensive back early in the 2013 season.

• It's no coincidence that O'Leary had two of the best seasons of any tight end in the country in Brewster's first two years at FSU. Brewster was the tight ends coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2002-04 and the Denver Broncos from 2005-06 after coaching that same position at North Carolina from 1989-97 and Texas from 1998-2001. Brewster coached All-Pro tight end Antonio Gates while with the Chargers and saw six tight ends sign NFL contracts during his UNC and Texas tenures. He was the head coach at Minnesota from 2007-10 and the wide receivers coach at Mississippi State in 2012.

• In his role as FSU's recruiting coordinator, Brewster and the Seminoles landed the nation's second-best recruiting class by ESPN and No. 3-ranked class from 247Sports in 2015. Among this year's recruiting class was three five-star and 12 four-star recruits, including three of the top 11 players in the country as rated by ESPN.

• FSU had another spectacular Signing Day in 2014, inking 13 ESPN Top 300 prospects, three consensus five-star recruits in the 247Sports composite rankings, 13 four-star players and 11 three-star Noles. ESPN ranked Brewster the nation's No. 6 recruiter for 2014, while 247Sports rated him No. 7.

• The Seminoles' recruiting class was rated No. 3 nationally by ESPN and No. 4 by 247Sports in 2014.

• Brewster joined the Florida State coaching staff in February of 2013 following a stint in 2012 as the wide receivers coach at Mississippi State where he helped the Bulldogs break several records. Brewster was the head coach of the Minnesota Golden Gophers from 2007-2010 before spending the 2011 season as a college football analyst for Fox Sports. He led the Golden Gophers to the Insight Bowl in both 2008 and 2009, while Brewster's teams have played in 15 bowl games overall. Prior to Minnesota, Brewster spent five seasons in the National Football League. He concluded his second season as tight ends coach for the Denver Broncos in 2006. Brewster instructed the San Diego Chargers tight ends from 2002-04 and held additional responsibilities as the team's assistant head coach for the 2004 season.

• During his tenure with the Chargers, Brewster oversaw the rapid development of Gates, who in 2004 earned first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and a Pro Bowl selection after playing only his second year of football since high school. Gates set an NFL single-season touchdown record (13) for tight ends in 2004 while ranking third in receiving yards (964) and fourth in receptions (81) among NFL tight ends.

• Before working for San Diego, Brewster enjoyed success coaching tight ends at the University of Texas (1998-2001) and the University of North Carolina (1989-97). He worked on Mack Brown's staffs at both schools and developed six tight ends who signed NFL contracts.

• In four years at Texas, Brewster tutored two tight ends who earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, including 1998 first-team selection Derek Lewis, and coached two players who signed NFL contracts in Lewis and Bo Scaife, who was drafted in the sixth round by Tennessee in 2005. Brewster's tight ends at Texas blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his four seasons at the school, highlighted by Ricky Williams' 2,124-yard season in 1998.

• In nine years at North Carolina, Brewster mentored four All-ACC selections at tight end and helped the school advance to six consecutive bowl games from 1992-97. As recruiting coordinator, his efforts secured the talent that helped the 1997 team go 11-1 and finish fourth in the nation.

• Brewster guided Alge Crumpler to second-team All-ACC distinction and honorable mention All-America accolades from Football News as a sophomore in 1997. He also mentored Freddie Jones to a first-team All-ACC selection in 1995 and again in 1996 when Jones set a North Carolina single-season record for receptions by a tight end (32) to garner third-team All-America honors from Football News.

• His tight ends at North Carolina were critical to the team's rushing success as their blocking helped clear the way for five different 1,000-yard seasons, including Natrone Means' back-to-back 1,000-yard years in 1991 and '92. Greg DeLong, a first-team All-ACC tight end in 1994, twice earned ACC Lineman of the Week honors for his blocking in 1996 under Brewster's tutelage.

• Brewster spent 1987-88 as head coach at Central Catholic High School in Lafayette, Ind., directing a wide-open offense while his squad's won 15 of 23 games during that period. He developed Indiana's passing leader in both of his seasons as head coach.

• Brewster began his coaching career in 1986 at Purdue, where he coached tight ends and offensive tackles as a graduate assistant.

• A former two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection at the University of Illinois, Brewster led the nation's tight ends in receiving in 1983 and captained Illinois to the 1984 Rose Bowl against UCLA. Brewster, who graduated from Illinois with a bachelor's degree in political science, participated in training camps of the New York Giants (1984) and Philadelphia Eagles (1985).

• Brewster was born Oct. 13, 1960, in Phillipsburg, N.J. He and his wife, Cathleen, have three sons: Eric, Clint and Nolan.

• Jay Graham enters his third season at Florida State in 2015, and second as both the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The former All-SEC and NFL running back has coached the running backs all three seasons at Florida State, including current NFL players Karlos Williams (Buffalo Bills), Devonta Freeman (Atlanta Falcons) and James Wilder Jr. (Cincinnati Bengals).

• Williams was selected by the Bills in the fifth round of the 2015 Draft, completing an impressive transition from safety to running back under the guidance of Graham. Freeman was a fourth-round selection by the Falcons in 2014 and is expected to compete for the starting job this fall. Wilder enters his second season with the Bengals after signing with the club as a free agent in 2014.

• Graham also coached South Carolina running back Marcus Lattimore, who posted consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons, before being selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

• A native of Concord, N.C., Graham was a standout All-SEC running back from 1993-96 at Tennessee, rushing for 2,609 yards and totaling 14 career 100-yard games. Graham earned All-SEC second team honors as both a junior and a senior and helped the Vols to three bowl victories.

• Following his successful career at Tennessee, Graham was a third-round pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 1997. He spent six seasons in the NFL with Baltimore, Seattle, and Green Bay.

• Graham has spent ten years coaching, including three seasons in the SEC at South Carolina and two at his alma mater Tennessee, where he was one of the most productive rushers in the history of the Volunteers. He began his coaching career in 2005 as a graduate assistant with the Vols before returning in 2012 as the running backs coach.

• Graham has lost just one game since joining the Seminoles in 2013, guiding the Seminoles to 27 consecutive victories to open his career with Florida State. Over that time, the Seminoles have had two running backs drafted to the NFL, while 2014's leading rusher Dalvin Cook became the first Seminole freshman to gain over 1,000 yards in a season.

• Thanks to a limited work load early in the season, Cook was his strongest in the Seminoles biggest games of 2014, gaining over 100 yards in the final three games of the season against in-state rival Florida (144), Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship (177), and Oregon in the Rose Bowl (103). He finished with eight rushing touchdowns on the season, including two each in big second-half comebacks against Louisville (9 rushes for 110 yards) and Miami (7-92). Cook joined Freeman as 1,000-yard rushers under Graham, the first Seminoles since Warrick Dunn in 1996 to accomplish the feat.

• Graham also did a fantastic job in his first season as FSU's special teams coordinator. Kicker Roberto Aguayo collected consensus All-America honors, while drilling 27 of 30 field goals and making all 55 of his extra points. Punter Cason Beatty had the best season of his career, averaging 41.0 yards per punt on a career-best 48 attempts. He had 15 of his punts downed inside the 20.

• Graham oversaw the conversion of Williams from defensive back to running back in 2013, a move that saw Williams rack up 22 rushing touchdowns and finish ninth on the Seminoles all-time list before joining the NFL.

• Graham's first year of work at Florida State resulted in a tremendous ground attack that helped the Seminoles go undefeated (14-0) and have one of the most productive offenses in college football history, as the Seminoles set an FBS record for points in a season (723). Graham was influential in the continued progression of Freeman. Freeman registered 1,016 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns, while Williams broke through with 730 yards rushing and added 11 scores as he averaged an astounding eight yards per carry. Rounding out the tremendous trio was Wilder Jr., who totaled 563 yards and eight scores while averaging seven yards per tote. FSU set a school record with 42 rushing touchdowns.

• In Graham's first season guiding the FSU rushing attack, Florida State piled up 2,844 yards on the ground and a 5.6 yards per carry average. The Noles' yards per carry matched the 2012 team's proficient average and is tied for the highest in a season since the 1995 team averaged 5.8 yards per rush.

• Graham's influence on both the kickoff return and kickoff coverage units in 2013 cannot be understated. Working with Charles Kelly, Florida State finished first in the nation averaging 28.2 yards per kickoff return, and wound up 16th nationally allowing just 18.6 yards per kickoff return. Kermit Whitfield emerged as the nation's top kick returner, leading the country and setting the ACC record with 36.4 yards per return while finishing tied for second with two kickoff return TD's.

• Throughout the majority of his coaching career, Graham has worked with running backs. His first full-time position in 2006 was as the running backs coach at Chattanooga. He went on to coach the backs at San Diego, UT-Martin, Miami (Ohio) and South Carolina and then back at his alma mater, Tennessee.

• In just one year in Knoxville under Graham's guidance, the Vols more than doubled their rushing output from 70.4 yards per game in 2011 to 160.3 yards per game in 2012.

• Prior to his success in Tennessee, Graham tutored Lattimore while with the Gamecocks. Lattimore was on pace to become the first South Carolina rusher to post consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for the school since Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers before suffering an ankle injury that sidelined him for the final five games.

• Overall, Graham has coached and played in eight bowl games during his career.

• Graham and his wife, Kelly, are the parents of three daughters, Nia, Denae and Kierra, and two sons, Jayson and Kellan.

• Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher named Brad Lawing defensive ends and outside linebackers coach on January 26, 2015.

• Lawing comes to Florida State from Florida, where he spent the past two seasons coaching under Will Muschamp with the Gators as assistant head coach and defensive line coach. Before joining the Gators, Lawing worked under Steve Spurrier at South Carolina, Nick Saban at Michigan State, and one year with Mack Brown at Appalachian State.

• Lawing has overseen the development of some great defensive linemen, including four first-round picks in the last three years. He coached 2014 No. 1 overall pick Jadeveon Clowney at South Carolina as well as fellow first-round picks Dante Fowler (2015, No. 3) and Dominique Easley at Florida (2014, No. 29), and Melvin Ingram (2013, No. 18) at South Carolina.

• With the Gators, Lawing was instrumental in helping UF finish near the top of the nation and the SEC in defense in 2013 and 2014. Florida ranked in the Top 20 nationally in scoring defense (21.1), rushing defense (116.2), total defense (329.8) and forced fumbles (10) in 2014.

• In 2013, Florida ranked eighth in total defense (314.3) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1). In the SEC, the Gators ranked third in rushing defense in 2014 and second in total defense and rushing defense in 2013.

• At South Carolina from 2006-12, Lawing helped the Gamecocks set a school record and led the SEC with 43 sacks in 2012 as Clowney totaled 13 sacks and added 23.5 tackles for loss. In 2010, South Carolina led the SEC and set a then-school record with 41 sacks. From 2008 to 2012, South Carolina finished in the nation's Top 15 in total defense every year, including a high of No. 3 in 2011. Over that time, the Gamecocks, reached a bowl every season and went 11-2 in each of Lawing's last two seasons with the Gamecocks.

• In 2012, Ingram earned consensus All-America honors, while Clowney was named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

• Before South Carolina, Lawing served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for North Carolina for three seasons from 2003-05, four seasons at Michigan State from 1999-2002, his initial stint with the Gamecocks from 1989-98, and six seasons with Appalachian State from 1983-88.

• At North Carolina, Lawing was a part of the Tar Heels Continental Tire Bowl team. With the Spartans in 1999, Lawing worked under head coach Nick Saban as Michigan State finished the season 10-2, 6-2 in the Big Ten and Citrus Bowl champions after a 37-34 victory over Florida.

• At Michigan State, Lawing coached 1999 First Team All-American Julian Peterson. The first round draft pick was a five-time Pro Bowler who played 11 years in the NFL. The Spartans set a school-record with 57 sacks in 1999. Lawing also coached future NFL players Robaire Smith, Jace Saylor, Josh Shaw, Matthias Askew and Kevin Vickerson at Michigan State.

• During his initial run with the Gamecocks, from 1989-98, Lawing coached three future NFL players in Corey Miller, Gerald Dixon, and Henry Taylor, and, as recruiting coordinator, signed defensive end John Abraham, who went on to be a five-time Pro Bowler with the New York Jets, Atlanta Falcons, and Arizona Cardinals.

• Prior to his first stint with the Gamecocks, Lawing served under Mack Brown with Appalachian State in Brown's only season in Boone, N.C. Lawing coached the offensive tackles and tight ends in 1983. Lawing was the defensive line coach for the next five years as ASU won back-to-back Southern Conference titles and advanced to the Division 1-AA Playoffs in 1986 and 1987. The Mountaineers entered the playoffs as the No. 1 seed in 1987 and reached the semifinals.

• Appalachian State's Anthony Downs was named the Southern Conference Player of the Year in 1987. Lawing coached future NFL players Tommy Dawkins and Mike Frier at ASU.

• Lawing has plenty of Seminole connections entering his first year on the staff. He worked with current linebackers coach Bill Miller for all four seasons at Michigan State (1999-2002), where Miller served as the defensive coordinator under Saban. He also worked at South Carolina for three seasons with current Seminole running backs coach and special teams coordinator Jay Graham (2009-11).

• Lawing has served as the recruiting coordinator for 17 years at three of his stops, including his first time at South Carolina (1989-98), Michigan State (1999-2002), and North Carolina (2003-05). His classes regularly ranked in the Top 25.

• Lawing was born in Frankfurt, Germany, and was a four-year starter at linebacker at Lenoir-Rhyne before graduating with a bachelor's degree in 1979. He received his master's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He will be inducted into the Lenoir-Rhyne Sports Hall of Fame in fall of 2015.

(1/1) FLORIDA STATE

OKLAHOMA STATE

31

Saturday, Aug. 30, 2014 • Arlington, Texas

- Florida State extended its winning streak to 17 games - matching the program record set from Aug. 28, 1999 to Oct. 7, 2000.
- Senior wide receiver Rashad Greene became the sixth FSU player to tally over 200 yards receiving in a game as he caught 11 passes for a career-high 203 yards. He moved from sixth to fourth on the FSU all-time list in receiving yards (2,668), passing Greg Carr and Kez McCorvey.
- Redshirt sophomore quarterback Jameis Winston eclipsed the 300-yard passing mark for the eighth time in his career, finishing with 370 yards on 25-for-40 passing. He sits fifth all-time in FSU history in career 300-yard games. Winston also added his longest run from scrimmage on a 28-yard score in the third quarter.
- Redshirt sophomore running back Mario Pender made the most of his first career carry, toting it 11 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter. He is the first Seminole to score on their first touch since Karlos Williams dashed 65 yards against Nevada in 2013.
- Sophomore safety Nate Andrews scored the first touchdown of the season for Florida State on a 9-yard interception return in the first quarter. The Seminole defense held OSU to just 33 yards in the opening 15 minutes.
- A forced fumble in the fourth quarter by P.J. Williams on OSU quarterback J.W. Walsh was quickly followed by a 50-yard Rashad Greene touchdown catch to extend FSU's lead to 37-24.
- Sophomore safety Jalen Ramsey set a new career high with 12 tackles, including seven solo.

24

Saturday, Nov. 29, 2014 • Tallahassee, Fla.

- The No. 3 Seminoles completed their second-straight undefeated regular season with a 24-19 victory over Florida. Florida State has now won 28 consecutive games which ties Alabama (1978-80), Oklahoma (1973-75) and Michigan State (1950-53) for 14th-longest all-time.

(3/2/2) FLORIDA STATE

20

Monday, Jan. 1, 2015 ▪ Pasadena, Calif.

- No. 3/2 Florida State's school- and ACC-record 29-game win streak came to an end against No. 2/3 Oregon in the Rose Bowl College Football Playoff Semifinal.
- The Seminoles trailed 18-13 at the end of the first half when sophomore safety Nate Andrews intercepted Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Mariota to set up redshirt sophomore kicker Roberto Aguayo's career-long 54-yard field goal attempt with three seconds left in the second quarter. The kick just missed, hitting the left upright.
- FSU cut Oregon's lead to 25-20 with 8:07 left in the third quarter when redshirt sophomore quarterback Jameis Winston found freshman wide receiver Travis Rudolph for an 18-yard touchdown.
- The Seminoles fumbled three times in the third quarter, allowing the Ducks to take control of the game.
- Winston threw for 348 yards, tying Chris Weinke's school-record for most career 300-yard games at 14. He tossed a TD pass in his school-record 27th-consecutive game.
- FSU set the Rose Bowl record for first downs passing (17) and combined with Oregon to set the Rose Bowl record for most yards by both teams (1,167). The Noles totaled 528 yards of total offense.

GOLDEN TORCH AWARD

Defensive back Colin Blake was one of 22 student-athletes who were recognized for their off-the-field achievements at the 24th annual Florida State Golden Torch Awards, which recognizes Seminole student-athletes' excellence in the classroom.

The Golden Torch Gala has been one of few events nationwide which solely recognizes the success of student athletes' off the playing fields. The student-athletes recognized bring distinction and honor to Florida State University by continuing to reinforce FSU's position as a superior academic and athletic institution. These are FSU's most visible ambassadors and their hard work promotes the best interest of Florida State University. Their academic achievements are also a tribute to the many individuals and groups on campus who support the mission of the athletics department throughout the year.

Golden Torch winners are the student-athletes who achieved the highest grade point average on their respective teams for the previous academic year. Some of them will have already embarked on professional careers while the majority are still on campus continuing their education.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Giving back to the community is more than a high priority at Florida State University. It is an integral part of the development of the student-athlete. Through the Athletic Department's Office of Student Services, student-athletes are encouraged to serve the community and participate in a program that focuses on life skills as well as personal, career and leadership development.

Aguayo Does It All

Roberto Aguayo was recognized as the Golden Nole winner for the football program in 2015.

One of the great events held yearly at Florida State University is the Golden Nole Awards. Student-athletes get together as an entire group and are honored for the contributions they make on the field, in the classroom and in the community. The 21st annual Golden Nole Awards banquet in 2015 was hosted by the Student Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) to honor the contributions Florida State student-athletes make that often go unnoticed but are never unappreciated.

Golden Nole honorees are chosen on a combination of factors which include athletic achievement, community service, attitude and dedication. Aguayo followed in the footsteps of Rashad Greene (2014), and former kicker three-time Golden Nole winner Dustin Hopkins, who won the award for the football program in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Doc Fauls Award

Jarred (Scooter) Haggins was honored at last spring's Golden Nole awards banquet with the Doc Fauls Award. The Doc Fauls Award, presented by the FSU Varsity Club, was established in 1998, and is an award that recognizes senior Seminole student-athletes that have overcome the most adversity to participate in athletics for Florida State University.

As the Head Athletic Trainer at Florida State University from 1954-1986, Don Fauls had the opportunity to touch the lives of many. He consistently treated each and everyone in an honest, professional manner and was always willing to take the time to help the athletes through the physical and emotional pain that often came with participation in intercollegiate athletics.

Seminole Community Service BY THE NUMBERS

19,000

In the last three years, FSU athletic teams have performed over 19,000 hours of community service. More than 1,000 student-athletes have contributed to that total.

OVER 5,000

Florida State's athletics teams combined to provide over 5,000 hours of community service in 2014-2015, with six teams completing over 300 hours each. A majority of the hours come from serving local Tallahassee schools and organizations. More than 450 student-athletes contributed to the community service efforts. Some of the events and organizations the football team supported included the Wounded Veterans Entrepreneur Camp, College of Social Work's Arts and Athletics Camp, Conley Elementary Literacy Week, Florida Guardian Ad Litem, Garnet & Gold Goes Green, Miracle League Football, Summer Bridge Program, Tallahassee Seminole Club, the Able Trust Forum and TMH Hospital visits, to mention just a few.

700

In 2014-15, the FSU football team completed nearly 700 hours of community service. The team was one of six teams in the athletic department to complete over 300 hours.

Excellence On and Off the Field

Florida State's student-athletes continue to produce excellent results and the 2014-15 academic year was no different. FSU finished 11th in the Division I Learfield Sports Director's Cup Standings, improving upon its 12th-place finish in the previous year. Seminole Athletics has now finished in the top 15 for nine consecutive years. Over the last six years beginning with the 2009-10 academic year, the Seminole Athletic Department has averaged nearly an eighth-place finish in the annual standings (fifth in 2009-10, ninth in 2010-11, fifth in 2011-12, 11th in 2012-13, 12th in 2013-14 and 11th in 2014-15). As one of only six schools in the nation to finish in the top 15 of the Directors' Cup the last nine years (joining Stanford, Southern California, Florida, Texas and North Carolina), all 20 of FSU's sports – its coaches and student-athletes, included -- are used to yearly success.

FSU trailed 21-3 with 5:07 left in the second quarter and outscored the Tigers 31-10 the rest of the game, culminating in a 2-yard touchdown catch by Kelvin Benjamin from Jameis Winston with 13 seconds left.
- FSU led the nation in kickoff return yardage, interceptions, passing yards allowed, red zone offense, scoring defense, passing efficiency and set an NCAA record with 723 points. The Seminoles were also top-5 in the country in 10 other categories including total defense, scoring offense per game and turnover margin.

The Seminoles also had players break the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the first time since Anquan Boldin in 2002 as Rashad Greene (1,128) and Kelvin Benjamin (1,011) each tallied more than 1,000 yards on the season.
- Florida State set nine ACC team records (wins, total scoring, scoring per game, scoring margin, consecutive 40-pt games, TDs, TDs per game, Total Offense and Passing Efficiency) and eight individual conference marks (Jameis Winston – Passing efficiency, Yards per attempt, TD passes, Passing yards and Total Offense; Roberto Aguayo – Points Scored and PATs; Kermit Whitfield – Kickoff Return Average).
- Redshirt freshman quarterback and 2013 Heisman Trophy Winner Jameis Winston led FSU to its third undefeated season in school history and first since the Seminoles went wire-to-wire as No. 1 to win the 1999 National Championship. ### 15,000-84,409

From a maximum capacity of 15,000 in 1953 to a record crowd of 84,409 in 2013 against Miami, Doak S. Campbell Stadium has risen along with the Florida State football program to the top of the college football ladder.

NOV. 20, 2004

In a special ceremony prior to the Florida game on November 20, 2004, the home of Florida State football took on a meaning even more special when Bobby Bowden Field was dedicated. Now, with numerous additions to enhance the gameday experience, Seminole fans are treated to one of college football's greatest venues.

SOUTH ENDZONE

The south end zone houses the Florida State University School of Hospitality, where students in the program receive hands-on experience in various aspects of the food and beverage industry. The multi-level facility includes a restaurant and a sports grill on the top floor that gives a breathtaking panoramic view of Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium.

NORTH ENDZONE

The north end zone, which consisted of wood bleachers until the 1994 season kicked off, is topped by the offices of the football coaches. The offices are just part of the Daisy Parker Flory wing of the Moore Athletic Center which includes a number of amenities for the football staff. An even more drastic change came to completion in June of 2005 when the athletics department offices moved back into the newly rebuilt Moore Center.

THE LAST 168

The Seminoles have been formidable at home. In their last 168 home games — since the start of the 1988 season — the Seminoles are 144-23-1. The bulk of those games came with Bobby Bowden leading the team. Over his 34-year career the Seminoles posted a 166-33-2 home record — an .831 winning percentage. That includes an astonishing 56-1-1 record at home in the 1990s and the start of a 54-game unbeaten streak (53-0-1) which began in 1992 and stretched through the first two games of the 2001 season.

200 & 300

Bowden's 200th career victory came on Oct. 27, 1990, as FSU routed Louisiana State, 42-3, in Tallahassee. In 2007, Bowden won his 300th game at FSU on the field that bears his name with a 24-16 win over Maryland.

280 & COUNTING

The 'Noles are 280-87-4 all-time (.760) at Doak and 288-91-4 (.757) as the home team, which includes three seasons — 1947-49 — when they played their home games at Centennial Field. FSU was 8-4 at the downtown Tallahassee site, including 8-0 in coach Don Veller's first two seasons.

OCT 7, 1950

Doak Campbell Stadium opened on Oct. 7, 1950, with Florida State celebrating a 40-7 victory over Randolph-Macon. Since then, millions of fans have passed through the gates.

"ROUND HERE"

THE GARNET & GOLD STANDARD

Game weekends in Tallahassee can make for a legendary and exciting experience. Fridays before home games serve as primers for "College Football Saturdays in the South" giving Seminole fans from all over their first chance to come together as one. From stadium tours, downtown activities, FSU's Friday Night Block Party and other activities centered around 'Nole game weekends, "Round Here" FSU has made it a Garnet & Gold Standard in creating one of the best college football atmospheres in the country.

Any Given Saturday

Hours before games, students and fans crowd onto the Florida State campus, filling parking lots, the intramural fields and Langford Green to tailgate and enjoy fellowship in getting ready for the big game at Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium. Gameday experiences the last four seasons have been enhanced with visits from ESPN's College GameDay – a true testament to FSU's reputation for one of the best environment in all of college football.

Warchantin'

Bring your best "chop" upon your arrival in Tallahassee. Fans decked out in Garnet and Gold attire often break out into spontaneous performances of the "Warchant" and the "FSU Fight Song," as well as the famous F-L-O-R-I-D-A S-T-A-T-E chants while using their arm to emulate a Tomahawk Chop.

CollegeTown at Madison St.

In 2013, Tallahassee became home to a brand new entertainment district, CollegeTown, located just two blocks from campus. Featuring a handful of restaurants and other attractions, CollegeTown has become the heart of game day thanks to the efforts of Seminole Boosters and the City of Tallahassee.

The Marching Chiefs

Recognized as the "band that never lost a halftime" by Sports Illustrated, the Chiefs have performed for audiences at the International Trade Fair in Damascus and for the World Football League in London. In addition, the Chiefs perform at all home and select away football games as well as the annual post-season bowl game. Approximately two hours prior to kickoff on home game days, the Chiefs give a live performance, dubbed a "Skull Session," on Mike Martin Field inside Dick Howser Stadium

Tallahassee

Best known as Florida's capital city, Tallahassee shares a deep-rooted history and culture.

It is the county seat and only incorporated municipality in Leon County, and is the 125th largest city in the United States. Tallahassee became the capital of Florida, then the Florida Territory, in 1824.

Located in the Florida Panhandle, Tallahassee is a place where college town meets cultural center, politics meets performing arts and history meets nature, a place where the vibrancy of what to do is matched only by the city's inviting hospitality. Tallahassee offers something for everyone.

FRIDAY NIGHT

FRIDAY NIGHT BLOCK PARTY

The Florida State community gets rockin' on Friday nights during home weekends. The Friday Night Block Party - the official tailgate event of FSU football - features live music, onsite vendors and special appearances from 5-10 p.m. at Kleman Plaza in downtown Tallahassee. Recent acts that have kicked off the fall and spring football weekends include Jake Owen, Chase Rice, Sam Hunt, Justin Moore, Lee Brice, Florida Georgia Line, Thomas Rhett, Easton Corbin, Parmalee, Brett Eldredge, Tyler Farr and Corey Smith. Another solid lineup is on tap for the 2015 season and features The Swon Brothers, Drake White, Canaan Smith, Logan Mize, Granger Smith, Dallas Smith, and Velcro Pygmies.

Many of the past acts have taken off after taking the FNB stage. Florida Georgia Line stormed the country music world winning several No. 1 awards and headlined the 2013 FSU Homecoming concert. Jake Owen, Sam Hunt and Chase Rice have all had albums chart No. 1 on the country music charts.

OSCEOLA & RENEGADE

THE BEST NCAA FOOTBALL TRADITION IN THE COUNTRY

Arguably the greatest spectacle in college football unfolds moments before kickoff at Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field atop Renegade, a beautiful Appaloosa, and plants a flaming spear at midfield prior to each home game.

The tradition was born on Sept. 16, 1978, when a student led the football team from the tunnel, riding a horse as the Seminoles headed into battle against Oklahoma State. Jim Kidder and Reo were the original Osceola and Renegade. Since then, five different Renegades and 15 different riders have made the ride and planted the spear, which brings the game day crowd to its feet. Brendan Carter who hails from Calvary Ga., is the 16th different rider.

Bill Durham trained the riders and horses for 20 years before passing the honor and responsibility along to his son, Allen, who was a rider from 1992-1994. The clothing and rigging used by Osceola and Renegade are designed for authenticity and approved by the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida.

Prior to the 2011 season, ESPN's SportsNation voted Osceola and Renegade the best NCAA Football Tradition in the country. A framed rendering of the spear plant was presented to Bill and Allen Durham during the Oklahoma game on Sept. 17, 2011. That rendering resides in the Moore Athletics Center.

In 2013, Osceola and Renegade made their second appearance at a National Championship traveling to The Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., to watch the Seminoles claim their third national title. The only other time Osceola and Renegade appeared at a National Championship was 1993 for the Orange Bowl.

FSU ATHLETICS

NATIONAL CHAMPS!

In celebrating 20 years of Florida State women's soccer, the Seminoles did something they had never done before in 2014...win a National Championship. Florida State's growth in women's soccer, from a program that played in what is now a parking lot to one of the most dominant over the last decade, was missing just one final piece of the puzzle and Mark Krikorian and his team delivered that final piece with a College Cup victory in Boca Raton, Fla. Krikorian has taken the program to the College Cup seven times since his arrival in Tallahassee in 2005 including a current streak of four consecutive appearances. This was the team's third title game appearance and this group was determined not to come home disappointed. FSU's 1-0 win over Virginia, marking the third time FSU defeated the Cavs in 2014, cemented Florida State's place as one of the premier programs in the sport.

CHAMPIONS...AND SCHOLARS!

For the first time since the 2009 NCAA Outdoor Championships the Seminole women emerged with a pair of individual champions as Colleen Quigley and Kala Funderburk claimed steeplechase and 400-meter dash titles respectively, leading FSU to a sixth-place team finish. A nine-time, first-team All-American, Quigley swept the ACC Indoor and Outdoor Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards and was one of a nation-leading four track & field Seminoles to earn Capital One Academic All-America honors.

EXCELLENCE THROUGHOUT

One of the hallmarks of FSU athletics has always been widespread success across all the school's programs. That excellence has been defined over the years by the National Championships, ACC titles, individual honors and academic recognitions achieved by our student-athletes and coaches. Measurements of the program-wide success FSU has achieved is illustrated by the school's success in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup and Capital One Cup.

Overall, FSU athletics finished 11th in the 2014-15 Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings marking the sixth straight year the Seminoles have placed in the top 12. Only three other schools can make the same claim that they have finished among the top 12 in the Director's Cup for each of the past six consecutive years like Florida State. What makes this achievement more remarkable is the fact that the Seminoles field just 19 NCAA Division I sports, less than many of the other athletic department's across the nation, which is a key component in the rankings. For FSU to finish among the top 15 year-in and year-out, almost every sport must rank among the nation's best and that is what happens every season in Tallahassee.

In 2014-15 FSU's women's programs led the way for the athletic department placing fourth in the nation in the Capital One Cup, the highest-finish of any ACC program. On top of the soccer team's National Championship, FSU had two individual track National Championships and finished sixth in the nation at outdoors. The women's basketball program played in the Elite Eight, softball once again advanced to an NCAA Super Regional and the volleyball team played in the NCAA regional semifinals.

For the men, FSU football won its 15th ACC Championship, the most in conference history, and played in the first-ever College Football Playoff. The men's track and field squad took home the outdoor conference title and the baseball team captured its sixth ACC Championship. The Seminoles men's golf team spent much of the spring ranked No. 1 in the nation and advanced to the final round of stroke play at the NCAA Championships.

COACHES LEAD THE WAY FOR SEMINOLE SUCCESS

Great students, great athletes and a strong support system help win championships at FSU but so do strong coaches and the best in the nation coach in Tallahassee. Women's basketball coach Sue Semrau was named national coach of the year by three different outlets including ESPN while Mark Krikorian was named the nation's top coach by the NSCAA and Soccer America. For the third time in the last seven years, Florida State had at least five coaches named ACC Coach of the Year. In 2014-15 Krikorian, Trey Jones (men's golf), Semrau, Bob Braman (men's outdoor track & field) and Lonni Alameda (softball) all won the honor. Volleyball coach Chris Poole won regional coach of the year honors from the AVCA as well.

INDIVIDUALS EXCEL

Florida State student-athletes are at the center of everything the athletic department does and their athletic and academic achievements are a source of pride for the athletic department, University and community. In 2014-15 nine Seminole student-athletes were either recognized as one of the best in their sport or at their position nationally. Dagny Brynjarsdottir, who led FSU to a National Championship, was named the Soccer America Player of the Year and NSCAA Scholar Player of the Year, while Nick O'Leary won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, the first ever by a Seminole. More than 50 student-athletes earned All-America honors, seven were named Capital One Academic All-Americans and two Seminoles combined to win three ACC Scholar Athlete of the Year Honors. Seminoles were also named to the All-ACC Academic teams 74 times last season on top of 215 FSU athletes who were named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

WINNING ON AND OFF THE FIELD

THE NEXT LEVEL

The 2015 NFL Draft was virtually overrun with former Seminoles. All told, FSU led the nation with 11 players drafted. There was at least one Seminole picked in all seven rounds, including No. 1 overall pick Jameis Winston and fellow first-rounder Cameron Erving. FSU became the first school to have a player drafted from every offensive position (QB, RB, TE, OT, OG, C, WR) since the modern draft era began in 1967.

The real feather in the program's cap, though, stretches beyond just this season, and is a lasting monument to the Seminoles' recent run of dominance. FSU's 11 players picked in 2015 gave the program 29 total draft choices since 2013, a mark which breaks the modern NFL record for a three-year span previously held by Miami and USC. The run began when quarterback EJ Manuel went 16th overall to the Buffalo Bills in 2013 and ended more than two years later when the New York Giants selected lineman Bobby Hart in the seventh round in 2015.

SOD CEMETERY

Florida State's sod cemetery holds chunks of the field from great Seminole road wins.

Spanning over seven decades, "sod games" and the Florida State University Sod Cemetery have been a rich part of the Seminoles college football history, commemorating many of the greatest victories.

1962

In 1962, as the Seminoles completed their Thursday practice in preparation to face Georgia at Sanford Stadium, Dean Coyle Moore – a long-time professor and member of FSU's athletic board – issued a challenge: "Bring back some sod from between the hedges at Georgia."

OCT. 20 - FSU 18, GEORGIA 0

On Saturday, October 20, the Seminoles scored an 18-0 victory over the favored Bulldogs. Team captain Gene McDowell pulled a small piece of grass from the field, which was presented to Moore at the next football practice. Moore and FSU coach Bill Peterson had the sod buried on the practice field as a symbol of victory. A monument was placed to commemorate the triumph and the tradition of the sod game was born.

ON THE ROAD: UNDERDOG, UF, ACC TITLE, BOWLS

Before leaving for all road games in which Florida State is the underdog, all road games at the University of Florida and all ACC championship and bowl games, Seminole captains gather their teammates to explain the significance of the tradition. Victorious captains return with a piece of the opponent's turf to be buried in the Sod Cemetery inside the gates of the practice field.

Away from home and against the odds, Florida State sod games represent the most difficult battles on the football field. The Sod Cemetery stands as a tribute to those triumphs, to be enjoyed by the Seminole faithful.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

Florida State is one of the premier athletics programs in the nation with a tremendous success rate wide-spread amongst all of its 20 sports. Seminole sports had a success rate of 90 percent this past school year when it came to reaching the post-season, including a National Championship in women's soccer.

What makes Seminoles athletics one of the best in the country are the elite facilities afforded to student-athletes. From the best training facilities in great weather to the spacious venues, Florida State attracts not only the best of the best in the country but from around the world.

In continuing to keep Florida State's football program among the elite, exciting upgrades from the locker room, to coaches' offices and meeting rooms have been completed over the past year. The next phase of the process is constructing a state-of-the-art player's lounge.

THE MOORE ATHLETICS CENTER

The main hub for Seminole football and the Florida State Department of Athletics is the Moore Athletics Center, which is adjacent to Doak S. Campbell Stadium – and in the north endzone.

The four-story state-of-the-art building includes the football locker room, weight room, athletic training and rehab facility, tutorial and study hall space, computer labs for student-athletes, multi-purpose theatre for team meetings, press conferences and symposiums, classrooms and a dining facility with a full service kitchen and a mailroom. It's also the perfect hub of life for FSU's 400-plus student-athletes.

It's also home to the athletics administration and support staff housing the executive staff, business office, computer information services, coaches' video, Seminole Productions, college of communication faculty offices and student edit rooms, academic support, student services, compliance, sports information, digital media, marketing and promotions, facilities and event management. Designated spaces are available for athletic-training curriculum and a studio provided for the College of Communication students to gain hands on experience producing work for Seminole athletics.

The main level showcases Florida State's talented student-athletes with wall-to-wall vibrant memories of historic Seminole seasons and athletic achievements, including the 1993, 1999 and 2013 football national championships as well as FSU's three Heisman Trophy winners.

THE NEW MANNY GARCIA LOCKER ROOM

The Manny Garcia Locker Room underwent renovations prior to the 2014 season, upgrading the facility into without-a-doubt one of the nation's best. The unique semi-circle shape remains intact and features 120 new solid wood lockers created by combining design concepts of the ones used by the NFL's Dallas Cowboys and MLB's New York Yankees.

Each locker has a large stainless steel compartment in the bottom base for players to store clothing, shoes, bags and other personal belongings; a personal lock box, a universal mobile device charger, a built-in ventilation system flushing out old air and bringing in new air to dry out clothing and equipment. One of the main features of each locker is an iPad where individual and team messages can be left and displayed on for players from coaches and other football staff, practice or game film can be viewed on and class schedules can be viewed.

The remembrance of FSU's sealed lockers is kept in place with the focal point in the locker room which are statues of all the former 'Noles with retired jersey numbers and honored jerseys. The jerseys on the statues will stay lit the whole time and honor Fred Biletnikoff, Ron Sellers, Ron Simmons, Deion Sanders, Charlie Ward, Derrick Brooks, Warrick Dunn, Chris Weinke and Terrell Buckley.

By the number always being lit, it lends proof to the belief behind the fact that current players are sharing a locker room with all the great players who have played at Florida State.

The players' lounge serves as a relaxing lobby with large flat screen televisions, gaming consoles, comfortable seating and lounging chairs as well as a fruit and snack bar, Muscle Milk and Powerade dispensers. A Nike Display wall has full-size mannequins decked out in FSU uniforms as well as an interactive touch screen display to view Florida State's Nike football gear and uniforms.

ALBERT J. DUNLAP ATHLETIC TRAINING FACILITY

Florida State unveiled its brand-new indoor practice facility in 2013, which allows the Seminoles to practice year-round in state-of-the-art championship facilities without disruptions from inclement weather conditions. The nearly $15-million, 92,000-square-foot facility features a 120-yard artificial turf field with a 2,000-square-foot training room, rehab area and storage space. The facility is climate controlled and includes platforms that allow for multiple video angles to be shot during practices. The field resembles Bobby Bowden Field inside Doak Campbell Stadium and includes garnet end zones.

In 2015, the facility was nominated for the American Institute of Architects Florida People's Choice competition.

FSU's two full-size natural turf fields outside of the facility also were updated and feature a new tower between fields for video and viewing purposes. The entire project was funded by donations, including the $5 million pledge by Al and Judy Dunlap in Feb. 2011.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

THE ROGER HOLLER CHAMPIONS TRAINING COMPLEX

The Florida State Seminoles train out of the Seminole Strength and Speed Complex. The state of the art facility includes a 14,700 square feet weight room, 5,000 additional square feet of complex training area, 24 self-contained powerlift work stations, a cutting edge video/audio system and over 80 pieces of customized free weight and selectorized machines. The staff continues to remain on the cutting edge of technology and recently installed several iPads into the weight area for athletes to conveniently access training regimens.

Certified Strength and Conditioning Coaches operate the Seminole Strength and Speed Complex. The coaches design individualized programs that include a regiment of strength training, power development, linear and lateral speed enhancement, mobility and endurance. Before a program is designed all student-athletes are put through a battery of tests to identify strengths and weaknesses.

Once testing is completed a computer-generated program is assigned to the student-athlete. A coach will guide the student-athlete through the program daily and progress will be monitored on a weekly basis by the strength and conditioning staff. Continuous supervision of the athletes will ensure a successful physical transformation into a collegiate athlete.

FSU STRENGTH & CONDITIONING STAFF A CLOSER LOOK

Florida State's strength and conditioning program has quickly become one of the most innovative and advanced programs in the country under the direction of Vic Voloria and his staff of four full-time assistants. Using some of the top training methods and technologies, FSU's staff has transformed the Seminoles into one of the nation's most-fit teams, as evident by the on-the-field success.

“Stay in the Eye of the Storm”

The motto of the strength and conditioning staff is simple, “stay in the eye of the storm.” The most fundamental and important aspect of the Florida State University strength and conditioning program is that our coaches will always be on the floor coaching their athletes. No athlete is left to train on his or her own. Every workout, every exercise, every set, and every rep will be monitored by a coach. The coach will teach, instruct, provide feedback, and motivate the athlete.

ONE GOAL

It is the goal of the Florida State strength and conditioning program to help each athlete reach their full athletic potential by providing them with training programs that are scientifically based and founded on modern methods of strength and conditioning.

THE COMPLETE ATHLETE

The objective of the FSU strength and conditioning staff is not only to produce stronger, better conditioned athletes, but also to build discipline and mental toughness in each athlete through the implementation of a very structured and organized environment. Athletes are held accountable for the commitment and effort that they put into the program, and lifting and conditioning must be viewed as a vital element in the training program for athletes of any sport.

GPS TECHNOLOGY

The results have allowed Florida State to virtually eliminate soft tissue injuries and was a definite factor in helping the Seminoles win an ACC and FSU record 29 consecutive games, including three straight ACC Championships and the 2013 BCS National Championship.

SPORTS NUTRITION

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Sports Nutrition Department is to provide student-athletes with the resources they need to stay properly fueled both on the field and in the classroom. Through education, demonstration, and consultation, we strive to optimize health and performance which provides a set of skills that will continue to promote health and wellness throughout life. At Florida State, the elite become champions.

"THE MISSING LINK"

Nutrition can often times be the "missing link" for athletes in their training. Proper nutrition can help prevent injury, enhance the benefits of strength training programs and aid in the recovery process. Adequate fueling can turn an elite athlete into a champion.

NUTRITION EDUCATION

Every interaction is an opportunity to educate the student-athletes on how to properly fuel themselves. We provide team talks, cooking classes, handouts and one-on-one counseling to provide strategies to prepare student-athletes not only for athletic success, but to educate them for life after football.

FUELING THE ATHLETE

The sports nutrition staff offers a variety of different options for student-athletes to properly fuel themselves for their performance. We provide pre/post workout nutrition tailored to the needs of each student-athlete. The sports nutrition staff also provides nutrition around competition, on the road traveling and meal planning.

PRIMARY IDENTITY— THE SEMINOLE LOGO

The Seminole logo is indisputably iconic and unique to Florida State Athletics. It signals a consistent foundation—honoring the brand equity that has been built across decades of competition while creating distinction and reinforcing the brand for the next generation. The mark is strong, youthful and bold paying off the true attributes of a Seminole Warrior. It purposefully incorporates the Florida State color palette, and with the head held high it expresses our position with purpose and conviction.

The Seminole logo is the primary representation of the brand and is used as the main identifying device for athletics. Reinforcement of the primary identity will build equity in Florida State Athletics. In primary or secondary colors, the Seminole logo works well across all media. With a flexible approach to palettes and logo staging, the Seminole logo now comes alive with renewed spark and energy.

FSU LOGO

The FSU Logo is a stylistic ligature. At the origin of typographical ligatures is the simple running together of letters in manuscripts. In writing and typography, a typographic ligature occurs where two or more letters are joined as a single glyph.

The FSU Logo was created from the custom unconquered alphabet. It works closely in support of the primary identity to represent Seminole Athletics. This type-based mark gives the identity flexibility while staying consistent with the main look and feel.

VISION

As Florida State University leads and embraces the future — entering new markets, connecting with new students, faculty and staff, and expanding its presence — it is essential that the Florida State Athletics brand grows with the university. The objective of this exercise is to make sure that the brand is consistent across all applications and captures new audiences in an authentic and meaningful way. The Seminole Tribe of Florida was consulted through the brand development process and approved all modifications of these beloved symbols.

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS BRAND

What are the elements that make up our Brand Identity? The words you choose. The type you use. The colors, graphics, and imagery you display. A unique and iconic primary logo. The way you position and apply the primary logo. These are the key building blocks that help tell the Florida State story and shape people's perception of Florida State University.

Perfection is in the details. Underlying all Florida State brand expressions is a detailed, well-ordered system of visual assets. This unified system defines the Florida State experience.

EVOLUTION NOT REVOLUTION

At first glance, the new Florida State Brand Identity System may look revolutionary. It's bold and intriguing. It's designed to serve as an evolution of an already iconic identity and position the brand for the future.

BRAND ATTRIBUTES

Brand Attributes are a set of characteristics that represent the essence of the Florida State brand. These attributes identify personality traits and serve as a filter for all of the components of the identity system. When you experience the Florida State brand, we want you to be reminded of:

RESPECT | INTEGRITY | STRENGTH | PRIDE
CHARACTER | FIGHT | PASSION | LEADERSHIP
FAMILY | TRADITION

SEMINOLE SPEAR

Perhaps the most spectacular tradition in all of college football occurs in Doak Campbell Stadium when a student portraying the famous Seminole leader, Osceola, charges down the field riding an Appaloosa horse named Renegade and plants a flaming spear at midfield to begin every home game. Together, Osceola and Renegade highlight a pre-game ritual, considered to be one of the most popular in the nation.

Florida State's trademark helmet with the Seminole spear is well known throughout all of college football. This design was first introduced during Bobby Bowden's first year as head coach in 1976. Prior to that season, FSU had used a variety of different helmets ranging from gold with a garnet FSU, solid gold with garnet and white striping, an image of the state of Florida with STATE running down it, and various others. The refined spear now reflects the same visual language as the other elements of the identity system.

SEMINOLE PATTERN

In the early 1900s, a new decorative technique was developed by Seminole women, now commonly known as patchwork. Early patterns included blocks and bars of alternating color with occasional sawtooth designs that were sewn directly into garments. Patchwork was rapidly adopted as a standard means of embellishing the Seminoles' traditionally vibrant clothing. These authentic and meaningful patterns live on through today's Seminole natives, and are now an official element of the performance apparel palette for Florida State Athletics.

FSU and Nike were determined to incorporate meaningful symbolism into their uniforms and designers included Seminole lore in each element. The Seminole symbols for Fire, Arrow and Man on Horse (top to bottom, repeating) were the inspiration for this unique pattern.

1993 - FSU at Notre Dame

1977 - FSU at Florida

1851

Florida State University actually began in 1851 when a legislative act established the Seminary West of the Suwannee. The first students enrolled in 1857 and the Florida State College was co-educational until 1905 when the Buckman Bill sent all the female students to the "new" Florida State College for Women. The huge numbers of male college students wishing to enter school on the G.I. Bill after World War II forced the legislature to make FSU co-educational in 1946.

1902-04

Thirty-three years after Princeton and Rutgers kicked off American college football, the Florida State College played three seasons of football in Tallahassee. From 1902-1904, FSC played wearing the colors purple and gold. The 1904 squad was crowned state champions after defeating the University of Florida at Lake City and Stetson.

1946

Florida State University became a co-educational institution in 1946 when the first male students were enrolled, most of whom were coming back from World War II. The transition from FSCW, which was regarded as one of the nation's top colleges, to the new institution was remarkably quick and the development of an athletics program was almost as rapid.

1947

Florida State University fielded a football team in 1947 coached by Ed Williamson. On October 18, 1947, Stetson kicked off to the FSU three yard line. Don Grant returned the kickoff to the FSU 32 and 7,165 fans at Centennial Field celebrated the first football game. The team finished 0-5 on the season.

1948

Don Veller became FSU's second football coach in 1948 and would coach the team until 1952. An outstanding player at Indiana University, Veller inherited 20 lettermen from the first year, but only 12 would letter in 1948. Veller would lose just two games over his first three years, including an undefeated 8-0 campaign in 1950.

1950

Florida State played its first football game in Doak S. Campbell Stadium on Oct. 7, 1950 against Randolph Macon. 9,676 fans watched the Seminoles win 40-7, but the new home field was a story in itself. It was built on a former cow pasture and was completed in just five months. Tallahasseean Rainey Cawthon was instrumental in selling over 1,000 season tickets at $50.00 each to fund the stadium and won a wheelbarrow ride down

Monroe Street from contractor Red Coleman, who missed the completion date by two days. FSU players painted the stadium over the next summer for $1 per hour.

1953

Tom Nugent became FSU's third head coach in 1953 and would coach the Seminoles until leaving to become Maryland's head coach in 1958. An innovator on a national level, Nugent developed the I-formation and the typewriter huddle. Among the players he coached were FSU greats Bobby Renn and Lee Corso as well as a talented tailback named Burt Reynolds whose career was cut short by injury.

1960-70

Florida State's arrival on the national map occurred during Bill Peterson's 11 seasons as head coach. He came in 1960 when free substitution was still five years away in the game. He moved FSU boldly into the forefront of the passing game and led the Tribe to its biggest win yet when they topped No. 5 Kentucky 48-6 in 1964. He would post a 62-42-11 record in Tallahassee. Among a host of other things, Peterson developed the concept of the "hot receiver" in 1964 that remains in most offenses today.

1964

Fred Biletnikoff became FSU's first consensus All-American as a senior in 1964. He ranked fourth nationally with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns which did not include his four touchdowns in the Gator Bowl win over Oklahoma. Biletnikoff put FSU on the map and he was married under the goalposts at Doak Campbell in 1965. He would go on to have a Hall of Fame career with the Oakland Raiders. The national award given to the top college receiver in the country is named after him.

Ron Sellers began a career at Florida State that would prove one of the most prolific in college history. He gained an unheard of 3,979 yards over his career. His statistics were so impressive that most lasted as national records all the way until 1987. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games and averaged 119.9 yards per game. He is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

1970

While integration of schools throughout the country came painfully slow, Florida State's first African-American player took the field in 1970. J.T. Thomas was a starter from the first game he played at FSU and he backed a sterling college career with three Super Bowl rings earned as a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1971

Larry Jones coached the Seminoles from 1971-1973. An 0-11 campaign in his last year spelled the end for the coach. Among notable players during his era were outstanding wide receiver Barry Smith, quarterback Gary Huff and Alabama transfer Billy Sexton.

1974-75

Darryl Mudra coached the Seminoles for two seasons and did his work from the pressbox on game day. Perhaps the biggest accomplishment of Mudra's brief tenure, that included the NCAA mandated scholarship limits for the first time, was the signing of an unheralded running back named Larry Key. Key would prove to be one of the finest running backs in Seminole history.

1976

FSU president Stanley Marshall and athletic director John Bridgers set up a dinner meeting at an airport hotel in Tampa where West Virginia head coach Bobby Bowden was coaching an all-star game known as the American Bowl. They offered him a four-year contract worth $37,500 and he became the Seminoles' eighth head coach on Jan. 12. Bowden was interviewed for the job six years earlier when it went to Larry Jones, but FSU officials felt he lacked the experience.

DID YOU KNOW?

Scholarships In '51

It was not until 1951 that Florida State began to grant athletic scholarships and the move put added pressure on the program to win. FSU left the Dixie Conference and petitioned for membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference but were rebuffed. Interestingly, it was the University of Florida that sponsored FSU for admission to the SEC.

Seminoles First To Score Two

The late Vic Prinzi, who is a member of the Florida State Hall of Fame and was the color commentator for the radio network until his death in 1997, was the first college player ever to score a two-point conversion. On Sept. 13, 1958, the Seminoles took the season-opening drive of the Tennessee Tech game in for a touchdown and Prinzi, playing quarterback, ran in the two-point conversion to beat the other national games by just minutes.

Football Since 1902 Actually

Florida State College actually played football during the 1902-1904 school years and played it well. The first game in 1902 was a 5-0 win over South Georgia Military on Nov. 21 when touchdowns were worth five points. The NCAA nor the governing body at the time recognizes the early games for FSC, although the school won the state championship in 1904. The 1904 season included a 23-0 win over Florida in Lake City, Fla. The school then became the Florida State College for Women and would remain one of the nation's top all-female institutions until the large number of returning veterans from World War II triggered the state system to open Florida State University to men in 1946. The school resumed football in 1947, taking on Stetson in its first game.

Florida State ended a nine year drought versus the Florida Gators in convincing style with a 37-9 victory before 63,563 fans in Gainesville. The victory capped a brilliant regular season for the Garnet and Gold. It was the ninth victory in 11 games, the first time in Seminole history the school had recorded nine wins during the regular season. And, the win also returned FSU football to respectability throughout the south since head coach Bobby Bowden had said more than once that the program "would not be turned around until we beat Florida." Thus the victory - only the third in the 20 year series for the Seminoles - was more important than any other win in recent memory for Seminole coaches and boosters.

1979-80

Florida State got its first taste of the real big-time in 1979 and 1980 going to back-to-back Orange Bowls against Oklahoma. FSU went undefeated (11-0) over the regular season in 1979, but lost 24-7 to the Sooners and finished sixth in the final AP poll. FSU took a 10-1 record into the Orange Bowl showdown the next year before losing a heartbreaker 18-17.

1980

If one game can be singled out as the most important in the run of unprecedented success at Florida State, it would be the contest at Nebraska on Sept. 7, 1980. FSU won in Lincoln, 18-14, opening the eyes of the entire country. Nebraska fans shook off a mixture of shock and confusion to stand and give Bobby Bowden and his Seminoles a standing ovation as they left the field.

1981

FSU takes on the following schools in order all on the road: Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and LSU. FSU won at Ohio State, Notre Dame and LSU, but, more importantly, won fans coast to coast for its undaunted spirit.

1981

In 1981 a freshman tailback named Greg Allen was given the football in the middle of legendary Death Valley with a sea of LSU fans around him. He finished the day with a remarkable 202 rushing yards that signaled the arrival of a superstar for the Seminoles. Later that year, he would rip Western Carolina for 322 rushing yards, which still stands as the best rushing game ever for a Seminole.

1986

Deion Sanders spent a quiet first two years at Florida State before exploding on the national scene in a preseason press conference. He would become one of the most popular players ever in college football and one of the greatest athletes in FSU history.

1991-92

On July 1, 1991, the Atlantic Coast Conference accepted Florida State University as its ninth member and the first addition to the league since Georgia Tech joined in 1978. FSU had competed in the Metro Conference for all sports other than football, which had been an independent. FSU's first ACC football game was a 48-21 win over Duke on Sept. 7, 1992.

1993

The Seminoles won their first national championship behind Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward in 1993. FSU played Nebraska in the national title game at the Orange Bowl and used freshman Scott Bentley's late field goal to win 18-16.

1995

A 31-26 come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter of the Orange Bowl against Notre Dame was FSU's 11th consecutive bowl win. The streak set an NCAA record as was FSU's 14-game unbeaten streak in bowls that was spoiled only by a 17-17 tie with Georgia in the 1984 Citrus Bowl.

1999

Bobby Bowden used to keep an empty picture frame in his office, which was reserved for his first perfect season. He filled the frame with a 1999 team photo. The Seminoles finished the year 12-0 and topped off the record run with a 46-29 win over Virginia Tech for the national championship in the Sugar Bowl.

2000

Chris Weinke literally rewrote the FSU record book over his senior season and took home the second Heisman Trophy for a Seminole player when he won the award in December of 2000. He would finish his career with a record of 32-3 as a starter.

2002

Bobby Bowden passed Bear Bryant and moved into second place on the all-time coaching wins list.

2003

Bobby Bowden defeats Wake Forest to become all-time winningest major college coach. The Seminoles won the ACC and earned the BCS bid.

2004

Bobby Bowden Field at Doak S. Campbell Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 20, 2004 prior to the Florida game.

2005

Florida State wins the inaugural ACC Championship game by a score of 27-22 over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville. Willie Reid was named the game's MVP. The conference title was FSU's 12th since joining the league in 1992.

2006

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Bobby Bowden and Charlie Ward would be two of the year's 15 inductees. Bowden and Joe Paterno, who was also inducted, were the first two active coaches to be honored.

2007

Head Coach Bobby Bowden won his 300th career game at FSU with a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Ron Simmons would be one of 15 inductees. The Rhodes Trust named junior Myron Rolle one of 32 U.S. Rhodes Scholars for 2009 - the first time in nearly 25 years it has awarded the scholarship to a prominent college football player. Senior kicker Graham Gano was named the Lou Groza Award winner, making him just the second Seminole to ever garner the honor.

Legendary head coach Bobby Bowden (1976-2009) and longtime defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews (1984-2009) announced their retirements during the season and said their final farewells when FSU defeated West Virginia 33-21 in the 2010 Gator Bowl. The victory secured the Seminoles' 33rd straight winning season under Bowden. It was Florida State's 28th straight bowl appearance - the nation's longest active bowl streak. Bowden retired ranked second all-time in victories for NCAA major college football.

2010

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first-year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in the ACC history.

2011

Jimbo Fisher led Florida State to its 30th consecutive bowl appearance in the Champs Sports Bowl and the Seminoles rallied for an 18-14 win over Notre Dame to win their fourth straight bowl game. Punter Shawn Powell earned consensus All-American honors. FSU defeated both Miami and Florida for the second straight year, something the 'Noles hadn't done in back-to-back seasons since 1998-99.

2012

Florida State took its place back among the elite in 2012. The Seminoles captured their first ACC Championship since 2005 and won a BCS Bowl by defeating Northern Illinois 31-10 in the Discover Orange Bowl on New Year's Day. The 'Noles finished No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 10 in the Associated Press Poll. Defensive end Joern Werner was a unanimous All-America selection while placekicker Dustin Hopkins also earned All-America honors. Hopkins set a new FBS record by a kicker for career points (466) and also became the ACC's all-time scorer. Head coach Jimbo Fisher guided the Seminoles to their second 10-win season in just his third year as FSU finished 12-2 - the most wins since 1999 - and extended its consecutive bowl appearance streak (31).

2013

The Seminoles earned their third national championship with a 34-31 win over Auburn in the BCS National Championship game on Jan. 6, 2014. Redshirt freshman quarterback Jameis Winston led Florida State to a 14-0 record and its first undefeated season since 1999. Winston earned the 2013 Heisman Trophy as he finished with 4,057 yards passing and a school-record 40 TDs through the air to go along with 219 yards and four scores on the ground.

2014

Florida State won its third consecutive ACC Championship, and 15th overall since joining the league in 1992, earning a spot in the inaugural College Football Playoff. The Seminoles posted a streak of 29 consecutive wins, setting FSU and ACC records, becoming just the 14th team in college football history to win 29 games in a row.

THE BOWDEN ERA

Bobby Bowden's legacy left Florida State with two national championships (1993 & 1999), 12 ACC Championships, 31 bowl appearances, 33 consecutive winning seasons, two Heisman Trophy winners, 34 first round NFL Draft Picks and 107 NFL draftees from 1992-2009, and 118 ACC Wins.

1976

Although FSU had considered dropping football due to a 4-29 record over the previous four seasons, Bobby Bowden is hired as head coach and records his only losing season at FSU with a 5-6 mark.

1977

In one season, Bowden turns the program around with a 10-2 record, FSU's first-ever 10-win season. Under Bowden's direction, FSU won its first bowl game since 1964 with a 40-17 drumming of Texas Tech in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl.

1978

Bowden and Florida State received the program's first preseason national ranking at No. 17. He led the Seminoles to a second straight win over Florida, marking the first time in history FSU had recorded two straight wins over the Gators.

1979

Bowden led FSU to the Orange Bowl in its first ever New Year's Day bowl. Bowden recorded FSU's first ever unbeaten regular season and the highest AP ranking at No. 4 entering the postseason and coached FSU to a school-record 11 wins.

1980

Bowden's 1980 team was the first in program history to finish in the AP Top 5. When it's looked at how FSU became a national power, the 18-14 win at Nebraska always comes to mind as a landmark victory. He was named National Coach of the Year (Bobby Dodd).

1981

Bowden and Florida State gained notoriety with a schedule that lined FSU up in successive weeks on the road against Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pitt and LSU. The Seminoles went 3-2 in that stretch while Florida State's overall schedule was nicknamed "Murderer's Row" and "Octoberfest."

1982

For the second straight year, Bowden and the Seminoles faced the nation's toughest schedule according to the NCAA. Bowden reached into his bag of tricks for a 34-17 upset win at Ohio State.

1983

Bowden surpassed former head coach Bill Peterson as the all-time winningest coach at FSU. He was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. The "War Chant" saw its birth and FSU sported its "mustard" uniforms for the first and only time.

1984

Greg Allen recorded Florida State's first 1,000 yard rushing season. Bowden continued his creative play calls as Jessie Hester scored on a 77-yard reverse as FSU stunned defending national champion Miami, 38-3, in the Orange Bowl.

1985

Bowden coached FSU to its ninth straight winning season, capped off by a 34-23 Gator Bowl victory over Oklahoma State. Perhaps FSU's biggest victory came in the second game when FSU traveled to No. 10 Nebraska and defeated the Cornhuskers 17-13, a game Bowden would later call "one of the biggest wins in FSU history."

1986

Bowden and FSU recorded a 56-14 pounding of South Carolina in FSU's first-ever appearance on ESPN. Bowden led FSU to a perfect 6-0 record at home and the most points scored in a game by FSU in history with a 76-14 win over Tulsa. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

1987

Bowden missed his first national championship by one point when two Miami defenders knocked down a two-point conversion and FSU fell 26-25. FSU snapped a six-game losing skid to the Gators which marked Bowden's 100th victory at FSU.

1988

Bowden's preseason No. 1 ranked team fell at Miami breaking its streak of 11 opening day victories. The Seminoles would not lose again, winning 11 straight games. Bowden called one of his greatest trick plays, the Puntrooskie, at Clemson. FSU drubbed Florida 52-17 for the Seminoles' largest victory margin over the Gators.

1989

After a loss to Clemson, FSU went on to win 10 straight and earn a Top 3 ranking for the third straight year. FSU played in a third straight New Year's Day bowl with a win over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl, extending its bowl unbeaten streak to eight.

1990

Bowden earned his 200th career victory when FSU beat LSU 42-3. The 1990 meeting with Florida marked the first time in the series that both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as No. 8 FSU defeated No. 6 UF 45-30. Bowden and FSU beat Joe Paterno's No. 7 Penn State Nittany Lions 24-17 in the Blockbuster Bowl.

1991

Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Walter Camp) and led FSU to an 11-2 mark and fifth straight season of 10 or more wins. FSU was preseason No. 1 and stayed there 11 weeks before falling to Miami in Wide Right I. FSU defeated No. 3 Michigan 51-31, the most points ever allowed in the Big House.

On Oct. 26, 2013, Bowden returned to Doak Campbell Stadium for the first time since his final season in 2009. In what was coined "Bobby Bowden Day," the coaching legend was honored prior to Florida State's game against NC State, which was won 49-17 by the 'Noles. Bowden planted the spear once again and gave a thank you speech to the Garnet and Gold crowd, talking about his memories as FSU's cherished leader.

BOWDEN IN BRONZE

Former head coach Bobby Bowden is bigger than life in front of the Moore Athletics Center at Florida State as a bronze statue of his likeness was unveiled in a ceremony on Sept. 24, 2004. The statue is one-and-a-half life-size of Bowden and was sculpted by Tallahassee artist Stanley Proctor. The artist also created a smaller piece of artwork, measuring just over 12 inches high, featuring Bowden and Doak Campbell Stadium.

1992

Bowden and FSU beat Duke in FSU's first game as a member of the ACC. FSU suffered Wide Right II at Miami and fans saw the birth of the "fast-break offense" in the comeback win at Georgia Tech. Bowden earned career win No. 250 in his 20th year as Florida State's head coach.

1996

FSU won another ACC Championship despite falling at NC State 24-7 in only the second ACC loss for the Seminoles since joining the league. FSU went 11-2 and with a Top 4 ranking (No. 3) and 10 or more wins for a 12th-straight season.

1999

Bowden led FSU to its first undefeated season as FSU became the first team in the history of college football to go wire-to-wire as the AP No. 1 ranked team. ### 2000

FSU played in its third straight national championship game and fourth in five years. The 2000 season was the last of Bowden's streak of 14 straight AP Top 5 finishes and 14 straight seasons of 10 or more wins. The Seminoles finished the season 11-2, 8-0 in the ACC and a No. 5 ranking in the AP final poll.

2001

For the first time since joining the ACC in 1992, Bowden's Seminoles did not win the ACC championship but still went to their 11th straight New Year's Day bowl with an invitation to the Gator Bowl where FSU defeated Virginia Tech. # FSU FOOTBALL TRADITION

FSU Fight Song

While the "War Chant" has become familiar at FSU games, the Florida State fight song still remains the definitive sound of Seminole sports. FSU's band became the Marching Chiefs in 1950 and with that came the fight song. Tommy Wright, a member of the faculty in the School of Music, was perturbed that the Seminoles had been using "On Wisconsin" and the "Notre Dame Victory March" so he introduced the song in the Sewanee game, setting to music a poem by FSU Alumni Doug Alley.

History of the Garnet and Gold

Florida State's school colors of garnet and gold date back to the Florida State College championship football teams of 1904 and 1905. In those championship seasons, FSC donned purple and gold uniforms. When Florida State College became Florida Female College in 1905, the football team was forced to attend the University of Florida. The following year the FFC student body selected crimson as the official school color of 1905. The administration in 1905 took crimson and combined it with the recognizable purple of the championship football teams to achieve the color garnet. The now-famous garnet and gold colors were first used on an FSU uniform in a 14-6 loss to Stetson on Oct. 18, 1947.

War Chant

Florida State's "war chant" appears to have begun with a random occurrence that took place during a 1984 game against Auburn. In the 1960s, the Marching Chiefs would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer. In a sense, that chant was the long version of FSU's current "war chant." During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant melody. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the "war chant" portion after the band had ceased. Most agree the chant came from the fraternity section, but many spirited Seminole fans added the hand motion to symbolize the brandishing of a tomahawk. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season, it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, plus put their own special brand of accompaniment to the "war chant," for the sound we hear today. Atlanta Braves fans took up their version of the song and chant when former FSU star Deion Sanders came to the plate as an outfielder. The Kansas City Chiefs first heard it when the Northwest Missouri State band, directed by 1969 FSU graduate Al Sergel, performed the chant while the players were warming up for a game against San Diego.

Goal Posts Salute Peterson

The Bill Peterson era as head football coach at FSU was a time of great offensive innovation and of many firsts for the upstart Seminole program, including the first Seminole coach to beat the Gators at Florida Field, coaching the program's first All-American in Fred Biletnikoff and recruiting James Thomas, the first African American player to ever play football at FSU. A tradition of the Peterson era was to enter the field through the goal posts. As a tribute to the players and coaches of the Peterson era and their many firsts, "H" style goal posts were added to the field at Doak Campbell Stadium prior to the 2002 season and will forever be referred to as "Pete's Posts."

Tomahawks Can Be Won and Lost

Florida State's coaching staff and academic staff award tomahawks to individual players for great plays or contributions on the field and in the classroom. Players may get a tomahawk for a crucial play, a touchdown, a saving tackle or various other achievements on the field. In 1997 the Seminoles began receiving tomahawks for outstanding academic achievements as well. They look identical except the word academics runs down the handle of the tomahawk. What many fans do not know is that Florida State players can actually lose tomahawks as well. Poor performance on the field or in the classroom can cause a player to be stripped of the coveted decals.

SPECIAL LANDMARKS

"Unconquered"

Dedicated on Oct. 10, 2003, Fritz White's bronze statue "Unconquered" was designed to capture the indomitable spirit of the Seminole people and those who have adopted that spirit as a symbol for their university.

The massive structure, including its granite-covered pedestal base, stands approximately 31 feet in the air and depicts a spear-brandishing Seminole astride a rearing horse. At sunset the night before each home game, the spear is ignited and burns until sunrise on the next morning after the game. George Langford's endowment of the project for up to $1 million helped make the statue a reality. Fifty-one artists were then considered before White eventually saw the statue dedicated 10 years after the concept was inspired by attorney and FSU graduate Stephen Reilly's trip to South Bend, Ind. for an FSU football game.

Sportsmanship Statue

Between Gates B and C of Doak Campbell Stadium stands the one ton, 15-foot tall Sportsmanship Statue given in honor of Pappy Strum by his daughter Margaret Strum Allesee, who is an FSU graduate and former Seminole cheerleader. The enduring symbol of the most important aspect of athletic competition was sculpted by FSU alumnus and accomplished artist Edward Jonas.

Three Different Helmets to One

For one season in 1962 the Florida State Seminoles took the field with three different helmets. Coach Bill Peterson's three-team system featured the two-way Chiefs, the defensive Renegades and the offensive Warriors with each group wearing a different helmet. By 1963 the Seminoles were back to just one helmet, an all-gold version which once again lasted just one season as the word "State" was added in 1964.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

Since Florida State University first fielded an intercollegiate football team 57 years ago, only nine numbers/Jerseys have been retired. Those numbers/jerseys — 2, 10, 16, 17, 25, 27, 34, 28 and 50 — belonged to nine of the greatest players in Florida State football history — Deion Sanders, Chris Weinke, Charlie Ward, Fred Biletnikoff, Ron Sellers, Warrick Dunn, Derrick Brooks, Ron Simmons and Terrell Buckley.

With his blessing, Sellers' #34 was brought out of retirement in 2003.

This fall, the No. 55 jersey worn by legendary middle linebacker Marvin Jones will be retired against Miami on Oct. 10.

2

2 • Deion Sanders

- Defensive Back
- 1985-88

Deion Sanders' place in the history of college football was immortalized over a five month period in 2011 when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in August and the College Football Hall of Fame in December. Sanders redefined the position of cornerback over his historic career winning the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award as a senior at Florida State and landing two-time consensus All-America honors. He left FSU second on the all-time interceptions list, first for career punt return yards and having become one of college football's all-time brightest stars.

10

10 • Derrick Brooks

- Linebacker
- 1991-94

Brooks was a two-time consensus All-American at outside linebacker for the Seminoles where his blend of speed and athleticism set a new standard for the position. He starred at FSU from 1991-94 leading FSU to its first national title as a junior and earning first team All-ACC honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. He was named the ACC Player of the Year in 1994 and was a finalist for the Butkus, Lombardi and Football Writer's Defensive Player of the Year Award in both 1993 and 1994. Brooks was just as highly regarded off the field earning first team Academic All-America honors in 1994 and winning an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. In addition, he was committed to public service causes throughout his Seminole career. Brooks carried his excellence both on the field and as a citizen into his Hall of Fame career as the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers' all-time leading tackler. He was voted to 10 consecutive Pro Bowls (11 total) and at the time of his retirement had made an NFL-leading 200 consecutive starts. He led his beloved Tampa Bay team to the Super Bowl Championship in 2002. As a professional, Brooks was the recipient of several prestigious awards, including the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award, the 2003 Bart Starr Award, the 2004 Bryon "Whizzer" White Award, and the 2008 JB Award through the NFL Players association, all of which recognize an NFL player annually for their commitment to the communities in which they live.

Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. His accomplishments were even more impressive considering he suffered a potentially career-ending neck injury as a sophomore. Weinke's place among Florida State's all-time greatest players was recognized when his jersey was retired in 2001, at the time making it one of only seven retired numbers/jerseys in school history. Thousands of fans poured into Doak Campbell Stadium for a celebration of the national championship and Ward's Heisman, which included the surprise retirement of his number. He joined Fred Biletnikoff and Ron Sellers becoming only the third player in FSU history to be so honored. Ward's passing and running skills were already well known qualities by 1993, but his inspired leadership and poise under pressure during his senior year elevated him to one of the game's all-time greats. So exceptional was Ward's command of the offense that coaches moved him into the shotgun to allow him to make adjustments during the play. Ward set 19 school and seven Atlantic Coast Conference records over his two years as the starting quarterback for the Seminoles. A consensus All-American, Ward won over 30 individual awards in addition to the Heisman. Ward ranks second in career total offense at FSU with 6,636 yards and has the highest completion rate for a career (62.3%) and lowest interception percentage (2.90%). ### Jameis Winston

- Quarterback
- 2013-14

2013 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The dazzling playmaker and charismatic leader authored the greatest freshman season by a quarterback in college football history by leading Florida State to a 14-0 record and the 2013 VIZIO BCS National Championship. In the process, Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy at 19 years, 342 days and just the second freshman. In addition, Winston captured the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award while earning Consensus All-America accolades. The Bessemer, Ala., native became the first freshman to collect the ACC Player of the Year honor in the 61-year history of the conference and also nabbed the league's ACC Offensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year trophies. Winston elevated his performance when the stakes were highest, too. He was named Offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game after leading the Seminoles to a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The Seminoles trailed by 18 points (21-3) late in the second quarter to complete the largest comeback in the game's history. Winston clinched the victory by engineering the game-winning seven-play, 80-yard drive that started with just 1:11 remaining in the game and FSU trailing 31-27 and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kelvin Benjamin to give FSU the lead with 13 seconds left. Winston shattered the ACC record, Florida State record and national freshman record for touchdown passes (40) and broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057), while leading the nation and setting the ACC record for pass efficiency rating (184.8). Over his two-year career, Winston passed for 7,964 yards (third in FSU history) and 65 touchdowns (second in FSU history), while compiling a 26-1 record. His career pass efficiency mark (163.28) ranked as the 10th-best in college football history and is the FSU and ACC record. Winston won his first 26 starts - a feat unmatched by major NCAA Division I quarterbacks all-time and had five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, including a nation-leading four in 2014. He was also a valuable member of Florida State's nationally-ranked baseball team for two years as a pitcher and an outfielder, serving as the closer in 2014.

In the process, Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy at 19 years, 342 days and just the second freshman. In addition, Winston captured the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award while earning Consensus All-America accolades. The Bessemer, Ala., native became the first freshman to collect the ACC Player of the Year honor in the 61-year history of the conference and also nabbed the league's ACC Offensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year trophies. Winston elevated his performance when the stakes were highest, too. He was named Offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game after leading the Seminoles to a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The Seminoles trailed by 18 points (21-3) late in the second quarter to complete the largest comeback in the game's history. Winston clinched the victory by engineering the game-winning seven-play, 80-yard drive that started with just 1:11 remaining in the game and FSU trailing 31-27 and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kelvin Benjamin to give FSU the lead with 13 seconds left. Winston shattered the ACC record, Florida State record and national freshman record for touchdown passes (40) and broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057), while leading the nation and setting the ACC record for pass efficiency rating (184.8).

Over his two-year career, Winston passed for 7,964 yards (third in FSU history) and 65 touchdowns (second in FSU history), while compiling a 26-1 record. His career pass efficiency mark (163.28) ranked as the 10th-best in college football history and is the FSU and ACC record. Winston won his first 26 starts - a feat unmatched by major NCAA Division I quarterbacks all-time and had five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, including a nation-leading four in 2014. He was also a valuable member of Florida State's nationally-ranked baseball team for two years as a pitcher and an outfielder, serving as the closer in 2014.

In 2014 Nick O'Leary added a new national honor to FSU Football's lore as he became the first Seminole to win the John Mackey Award as the nation's best tight end. The native of Palm Beach, Fla., finished with 48 catches for 618 yards and six touchdowns, averaging nearly 13 yards per catch (12.9). O'Leary was a primary target for first-down conversions as a senior, with 28 of his 48 catches (58.3 percent) moving the chains. One of O'Leary's signature performances came against rival Florida on Nov. 29, 2014, when he hauled in two touchdowns to help the Seminoles come back for a 24-19 victory at Doak Campbell Stadium. An excellent blocker and pass-catcher, O'Leary's contributions helped FSU's offense average 33.7 points, 303.3 yards passing and pile up an average of 441.4 total yards of offense.

20 • Lamarcus Joyner

- Cornerback, 5-8, 190
- Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (St. Thomas Aquinas)

After foregoing the NFL Draft and returning to Florida State for his senior season, the defensive catalyst helped lead the Seminoles to the 2013 BCS Championship with a 34-31 victory over Auburn...became the first Seminole defensive back named a consensus First Team All-American since 2000...played 2013 as a cornerback after spending the previous two seasons as a safety...led the 'Noles with 5.5 sacks and ranked second with 69 tackles...no defensive back in the country had more sacks...spearheaded a Seminole pass defense that finished as the top-ranked in the country (156.6 ypg) and the top-scoring defense (12.1 ppg), and recorded two of the 'Noles' 26 interceptions, the most in the country and most for a single season in school history...in addition to being named a unanimous All-American, Joyner was also a First Team All-ACC selection and a finalist for the Jim Thorpe and Bronko Nagurski Awards...signature performance came at then-No. 3 Clemson when he led FSU to a 51-14 victory by recording eight solo tackles, one sack, an interception and forcing two fumbles that led directly to 17 points... nabbed several national player of the week awards following his performance versus the Tigers...finished his four-year career with 128 tackles, 10.5 TFL, 6.5 sacks, and eight interceptions...drafted in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

Became just the fourth Nole guard to capture consensus All-America honors in 2014...three-time All-ACC honoree and two-time all-conference first team selection...four-time ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week who led the FSU offensive line with a remarkable 87.1 average...had highest grade in 12 of 14 games, including five games with an average at 90 or above...started 42 games, including 26 straight...leader of one of the nation's top offenses which averaged 33.7 points and 441.4 total yards...paved the way for FSU to pile up 574 yards of total offense against the nation's then-top-ranked defense at Louisville in a 42-31 win...season-best grade of 94 came versus Boston College...key protector of QB Jameis Winston, who led the ACC in passing yards and total offense...opened holes for Dalvin Cook to set the FSU freshman record for rushing yards.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

All-time Florida State gridiron greats Walter Jones and Derrick Brooks are used to making history.

The longtime NFL stars added an achievement that will without a doubt move to the top of their accolade-filled biographies when they were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August, 2014.

Jones and Brooks became the first pair of first-ballot Hall of Famers from the same class who attended the same college in over 40 years.

The pair's journey together started 20 years ago. Just as Brooks was wrapping up his All-America career at Florida State in 1994, Jones was joining the Seminoles out of Holmes Community College (Miss.) for the 1995 season.

They never played on the same team at Florida State, but Jones distinctly remembers how excited he was to follow in the footsteps of the star linebacker whom he called the face of the Seminoles' program.

Jones and Brooks were the best at what they did for over a decade in the NFL. Brooks went to 11 Pro Bowls and never missed a game in 14 seasons (all with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers), while Jones became the NFL's premier left tackle, going to nine Pro Bowls over 12 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks.

Both retired in 2008, and, six years later, Jones and Brooks were teammates for the first time as first-ballot Hall of Famers. Their selections to Canton give Florida State four members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Deion Sanders was elected in 2011 and Fred Biletnikoff was selected in 1988.

ED WILLIAMSON (1947) 0-5-0

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and no team name. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year, although it finished 0-5. Williamson was not paid for coaching the team.

TOM NUGENT (1953-58) 34-28-1

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State, as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and his 1958 squad was the first FSU team to play Florida. Nugent also served as athletic director while head coach of the Seminoles.

PERRY MOSS (1959) 4-6-0

BILL PETERSON (1960-70) 62-42-11

Bill Peterson took over a football program in deep trouble in 1960. When he left, 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first 25 years of Florida State football. Under "Pete," the Seminoles went 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964, when the "Seven Magnificents" led Florida State to a 9-1-1 record and FSU's first ever win over Florida.

DARRELL MUDRA (1974-75) 4-18-0

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State, and he was successful after he left. At FSU, Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and wasn't able to bring the program back to the glory years it enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra coached from the press box instead of the sidelines.

BOBBY BOWDEN (1976-2009) 316-97-4*

Bobby Bowden spent 34 years at the helm of the Seminole program that he resurrected beginning in 1976. By far the winningest coach in school history, Bowden accumulated more wins than the previous seven head coaches combined. He finished his career as major college football's all-time second-winningest coach. Bowden took the Florida State program to the top of the college football world and won two national championships (1993, 1999). Bowden's Seminoles were one of the most dominant bowl teams ever posting a 22-10-1 record with NCAA records for consecutive bowl wins (10) and consecutive bowl appearances without a loss (14). Bowden is the only coach in the history of college football to lead teams to 10 or more wins over 14 straight seasons. He is also the only coach ever to lead his team to 14 straight finishes among the Associated Press Top Five.

* Due to sanctions imposed on Florida State by the NCAA, the NCAA recognizes Bowden with 377 overall victories and 304 wins at FSU.

JIMBO FISHER (2010-Present) 58-11-0

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010 and in five seasons has led the Seminoles to a BCS National Championship, two BCS Bowl wins, three ACC Championships, four consecutive bowl victories, five consecutive bowl appearances and four ACC

Atlantic Division Titles. In his first year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. In Fisher's second year in 2011, the 'Noles swept in-state rivals Miami and Florida for the second straight year. FSU also won its fourth straight bowl game with a win over Notre Dame in the Champs Sports Bowl. Fisher's third season culminated with 12 wins, an ACC Championship and a win in the Discover Orange Bowl. FSU finished in the top 10 in both the Associated Press (No. 10) and USA Today Coaches (No. 8) Polls. In his fourth season, Fisher led FSU to a 14-0 record for the first time in school history as it won the 2014 Vizio BCS National Championship over Auburn, 34-31, at the Rose Bowl. Fisher's offense amassed an FBS record 723 total points during the season, culminating in the school's third national championship. In year five, Fisher again led FSU to the Rose Bowl, falling to Oregon in the first-ever College Football Playoff semifinal. The Seminoles finished 13-1 and captured their third straight ACC Championship. Along the way, FSU set a school- and ACC-record by winning 29 consecutive games - a streak that began in the 2012 ACC Championship Game.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

JOHN THRASHER University President

John Thrasher, a Florida State University alumnus and former state legislator, is the university's 15th president. He assumed office Nov. 10, 2014, succeeding President Eric J. Barron.

Thrasher earned a bachelor's degree in business from Florida State in 1965. He subsequently joined the U.S. Army where he received the Army Commendation Medal in Germany and was awarded two Bronze stars for his service in Vietnam. He was honorably discharged as a captain in 1970.

Thrasher then returned to his alma mater to earn a law degree with honors in 1972. In his political career, Thrasher has served on a school board, in the Florida House of Representatives and in the Florida Senate. His success as a leader, businessman and lobbyist has helped him to develop strong ties within the community.

After working in private law practice in Daytona Beach and Tallahassee for several years, Thrasher returned to Jacksonville to serve as general counsel of the Florida Medical Association, a position he held for 20 years. He also served as "of counsel" to the Jacksonville law firm of Smith, Hulsey & Busey from 1996-2008. Thrasher was a partner of Southern Strategy Group, a Tallahassee-based governmental relations firm, from 2001 to 2009.

Thrasher's political career began in 1986 when he was elected to the Clay County School Board where he served as vice chairman, then chairman. He then became a state representative in 1992, and he was re-elected without opposition in 1994, 1996 and 1998.

Thrasher was unanimously elected as the speaker of the Florida House of Representatives in 1998, where he supported legislation such as the "A+ Education Plan" and the largest tax cut in Florida history.

President Thrasher and Director of Athletics Stan Wilcox

He was elected to the Florida Senate in 2009 and subsequently re-elected. He served as chairman for the Republican Party of Florida in 2010.

As a senator, Thrasher served as the chair of the Rules Committee and was involved in the Appropriations, Community Affairs, Ethics and Elections, Gaming, Judiciary, Regulated Industries, and Joint Legislative Budget Commission committees. He also served on the Appropriations Subcommittees on Education as well as Health and Human Services.

From 2001 to 2005, Thrasher was the first chair of Florida State University's Board of Trustees. In 2002, he was a key supporter of legislation that brought funding to the development of FSU's College of Medicine, and a building at the college is named in his honor.

Born in Columbia, S.C., Thrasher grew up in Jacksonville after moving to Florida in 1949. He and his wife, Jean, have three children and eight grandchildren.

STAN WILCOX Director of Athletics

Stan Wilcox was named FSU's 11th full-time Director of Athletics in August of 2013. In his two years on the job the Seminoles won the school's third football National Championship in 2013 and the University's first-ever soccer National Championship in 2014. The athletic department recorded a 12th-place finish in the Learfield Sports Athletic Director's Cup in 2013 and an 11th-place finish this past year, despite fielding fewer sports than almost any other school in the top 15 of the standings.

Wilcox has been at the helm during a two-year span that is one of the most successful in the history of Seminole athletics. FSU has claimed nine ACC Coach of the Year honors in the last two years and won 13 ACC titles, the largest number of championships in a two-year span in school history. During Wilcox's tenure there have been 13 ACC Player of the Year honors awarded to Seminoles and FSU student-athletes have received more than 120 All-America honors. Add to that a Heisman Trophy winner, 13 ACC Performers of the Year and 13 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and the excellence the program has experienced under his leadership is apparent.

Facilities upgrades have also been a major focus since Wilcox arrived in Tallahassee. In the last year the Tucker Center, home to FSU's men's and women's basketball programs, has been completely transformed with new seating, state-of-the-art scoreboards and numerous infrastructure improvements. Seminoles football offices, locker rooms, common areas, meeting rooms, coaches' locker rooms and players' lounge areas have all been significantly renovated or are currently under construction. Still in the works are improvements to the Tucker Center locker rooms for men's and women's basketball, as well as locker room renovations for soccer, softball and beach volleyball.

Wilcox came to Florida State from Duke where he served as Senior Deputy Director of Athletics from 2008-2013. During his time at Duke, Wilcox's duties included managing the day-to-day operation of the department and oversight of the football program. Other oversight responsibilities included Human Resources, Contracts, Legal Affairs, Athletics Training, Strength and Conditioning, Equipment, Campus Recreation, Physical Education, Marketing and Promotions, Ticketing, Digital Media, Sports Information and Video Operations. In addition, Wilcox was responsible for coordinating football scheduling.

Before arriving at Duke, Wilcox, a former basketball letterman at Notre Dame, spent three years as the deputy director of athletics at his alma mater. Prior to returning to South Bend in 2005, he served 11 years as an associate commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference.

While working at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox was the league's representative to the NCAA Management Council from 2000-05 and served on the Management Council subcommittees on incentives and disincentives, governance, nominations and the task force to review the NCAA's one-time transfer exception rule. His national compliance responsibilities extended to the NCAA recruiting task force and the basketball issues committee. His internal BIG EAST Conference duties included handling the league's NCAA governance, legislative, enforcement, compliance services and legal issues. In recognition of his outstanding service, he was awarded the 2001-02 National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators Outstanding Achievement Award.

In addition to his Florida State duties, Wilcox currently holds several national and ACC leadership positions including: membership on the NCAA Administrative Cabinet; 2015-16 Chair of the ACC Athletics Directors; Chair of the ACC Women's Basketball Committee; and, for the last 12 years, serving on the Advocates for Athletic Equity (AAE) Board of Directors.

Throughout his career Wilcox has spent considerable time expanding opportunities for others. He helped to create the Minority Opportunity Athletics Association and subsequently served as a member of its Board, and from 2003 to 2005 he was President of the Black Coaches Association (BCA).

Before his tenure at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox worked as a legislative assistant at the NCAA from 1989-94. Prior to that, he worked as a senior court analyst for the Kings County Supreme Court in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1982-89. Following his graduation from Notre Dame in 1981 with a degree in economics, he spent one year as an account executive for Serres, Visonos & Rice Insurance in New York, N.Y. and was a graduate assistant basketball coach at C.W. Post College.

A native of North Babylon, N.Y., Wilcox played in 100 career games on the hardwood for the Fighting Irish and was a member of Notre Dame's 1978 club that faced Duke in the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis, Mo. He helped the Irish to a four-year ledger of 92-26 with four NCAA Tournament berths. Wilcox went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the Brooklyn Law School in 1988 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

He is married to the former Ramona Harrell and has three daughters, Soraya, Yasmeen and Nadia, and Ramona has three sons, James, Brian and Charles.

Mission Statement

The mission of Student-Athlete Academic Services (SAAS) at Florida State University is to help student-athletes strive for excellence in all aspects of life. This is accomplished by creating an environment that supports academic, athletic and personal achievement, utilizing highly qualified and dedicated support staff and administrative personnel. A combined effort helps individuals become better students, athletes, and citizens, and prepares student-athletes to make transitions to the next level of participation academically and athletically.

More specifically, the drive toward excellence focuses on the advancement of learning, developing leadership skills, and fostering the personal growth of the student-athlete, while offering a high quality athletics program. SAAS personnel provide programs that develop meaningful standards of scholarship, leadership, integrity and self-responsibility. This focus extends to all phases of academic and professional development, culminating with graduation and job placement or graduate school.

Academic Advising

The advisors in SAAS serve as a portion of the advising unit for all student-athletes. The staff advises students through the liberal studies curriculum, degree prerequisites and major requirements. Advisors work with students in a number of areas related to academic experience at Florida State University, with a primary emphasis in advising and monitoring progress toward the selected degree program, taking into consideration all variables which would enhance or impede each student toward the goal of graduation. By partnering with on-campus major advisors, the SAAS staff provides comprehensive assistance in all areas of university advising.

Support Services

In addition to academic advisors, student-athletes have the opportunity to work with staff learning specialists. The SAAS learning specialists provide proactive, sustained, individualized support enhancing student success and developing independent learners. Additional responsibilities include academic needs assessment as well as referrals for further testing.

Tutoring Program

The Athletics Department at Florida State University provides our student-athletes with one of the finest and most comprehensive tutorial programs in the nation. The tutorial program is a key support service available to all student-athletes.

SAAS hires approximately 90 tutors a year, from a variety of academic departments, who provide individualized assistance with course comprehension and study skills. The tutoring program provides student-athletes the opportunity to meet individually with tutors, develop refined study habits, learn various ways of approaching and understanding material, and effective test preparation methods.

Tutorial assistance is a free service available to all student-athletes in any of their coursework and may be obtained by filling out a tutorial request form through GradesFirst or through discussing their needs with their advisor.

Mentoring Program

The SAAS Mentor Program is designed to assist incoming freshmen, transfers and other select student-athletes with their transition into Florida State University. This developmentally-oriented program creates relationships between the mentors and mentees that foster a well-rounded learning experience in both academics and other aspects of student-athletes' lives.

In these one-on-one meetings, student-athletes work with their assigned mentor in areas of communicating with professors, note taking, study strategies, university policies, time management and accountability. The overall goal of the Mentor Program is for the student-athlete to move forward from this process so that they are able to proceed throughout the rest of their collegiate career with the appropriate tools to be successful.

STUDENT SERVICES

About Student Services

The Office of Student Services strives to establish a commitment to the total growth and development of each student-athlete. Through the N.O.L.E.S program (New Opportunities for Leadership, Education and Service), an administrative commitment to academic and athletic excellence, as well as personal development, these efforts are supported with programs and services in personal, career and leadership development.

Personal Development

Fostering the development of personal growth is a fundamental component of the N.O.L.E.S. program. This support program ensures that the student-athletes will be provided with opportunities to focus on personal growth areas such as values clarification, goal setting, fiscal planning, decision-making and personal responsibility. Programming focuses on helping the student-athletes develop a healthy lifestyle while they are at Florida State University and habits that will benefit them throughout their lives.

Career Development

Preparing for life after college is a major focus of the N.O.L.E.S. program. The program is designed to work in cooperation with Florida State's Career Center to acquaint students with the job search process, provide networking opportunities and ultimately assist with job placement. The program places a priority on the development of the total person, with the goal of developing individuals who will have rewarding and productive lifestyles after they leave Florida State University.

Community Service

Serving the community is the focus of the Seminole Spirit program. Student-Athletes are challenged to give service to our community and individuals who are in need. With a clearly defined program of service, student-athletes are given the opportunity to develop a lifelong commitment to volunteerism. Over the years, our commitment to community service has grown by leaps and bounds. The Florida State University Department of Athletics has been recognized by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for having one of the most successful outreach programs in the nation, impacting the lives of thousands of children annually. During the 2014-15 academic year, Florida State's student-athletes performed over 5000 hours of service, with the Women's Softball team winning the Athletic Directors Cup for Service for performing over 28 hours per student-athlete.

Leadership Development

The Florida State University Department of Athletics is committed to developing programs of excellence that foster leadership development. Currently, the Office of Student Services offers three leadership programs to our student-athletes. The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) has been in place at Florida State for over 15 years and is a fantastic group of motivated student-athletes. The SAAC is made up of FSU student-athletes representing every sports team and spirit group. Regularly scheduled meetings occur bi-weekly which gives the student-athletes an opportunity to discuss issues confronting student-athletes, here at Florida State, as well as in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and across the nation. The SAAC at Florida State has many responsibilities: they take the lead on a variety of events, starting with New Student-Athlete Orientation, Peers Helping Athletes Transition (P.H.A.T.) Tuesdays, the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole Awards Banquet, where seniors from each team are recognized and student-athletes who have excelled in the area of community service are honored.

THE ACC

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Now, in its 63rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 141 NCAA team championships, including 72 in women's competition and 69 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 159 times in men's competition and 120 times in women's action. Given the ACC's strong history and the strengthening of its ranks with the additions of Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse in 2013, followed by Louisville in 2014, those numbers – and the league's longstanding tradition of excellence – appear destined to grow in the years ahead.

ACC Football enjoyed another banner year in 2014 as Florida State posted a 13-1 record, won its third straight ACC crown, won 29 straight games—which tied for the 12th-longest streak in college football history—and earned a berth in the first College Football Playoff. Two ACC teams were ranked in the final Associated Press Top 10 as Capital One Orange Bowl champion Georgia Tech (8th) joined the Seminoles (5th). The ACC finished with four teams ranked in the final AP and Coaches polls, with Clemson (15th) and Louisville (24th) also being recognized, and became the first Conference in history to send 11 teams to bowl games in back-to-back seasons. ACC teams defeated five Top 10 non-conference teams in 2014, the most in a single season in league history.

Over the past two seasons, ACC athletes have captured 14 of the 17 major national football awards, including the Heisman, the Outland Trophy, The Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the National Football Foundation's Campbell Trophy—the nation's academic Heisman—which was awarded to Duke linebacker David Helton. Louisville's Gerod Holliman tied the NCAA record for most pass interceptions in a season (14) and was named winner of the Jim Thorpe Award while Florida State's Nick O'Leary captured the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end. In all, the conference tied its all-time high with six consensus first-team All-Americans.

The ACC total of nine first-round draft picks in the 2015 NFL Draft tied for the most among all conferences, including the overall No. 1 pick in Florida State quarterback Jameis Winston. The ACC also had 47 players selected in 2015, the second-highest total in league history and the second-highest of any conference.

2014-15 Review

The 2014-15 academic year saw ACC teams capture five more national team titles and 16 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 72 national team titles over the last 18 years and has won two or more NCAA titles in 32 of the past 34 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the Atlantic Coast Conference again led the way among Power 5 conferences in the latest "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report. ACC member institutions combined for an average rank of 54.8, marking the eighth straight year that the ACC led all Power 5 conferences.

2014-15 National Championships

Women's Soccer	Florida State
Men's Basketball	Duke
Men's Tennis	Virginia

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 27 sports during the 2015-16 academic year--13 for men and 14 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially join the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

THE SEMINOLE TRIBE OF FLORIDA

The Unconquered People

By Barry Ray
FSU Office of News and Public Affairs

As a people, few have prevailed over more trying circumstances than the Seminole Indians of Florida. Over the course of almost two centuries, Florida's Seminoles endured three wars with the U.S. government, resisted numerous efforts to relocate them to federal reservations in the West, and ultimately made their home in one of the world's most inhospitable environments, the Florida Everglades. That they have not only survived, but thrived — all the while maintaining their fierce independence and rich culture — is a tribute to their courage and perseverance. This is their story.

Long before European explorers ever visited the area now known as Florida, native peoples had been living here for thousands of years. In fact, as many as 100,000 members of four Indian nations — the Apalachee, the Tequesta, the Timucua and the Calusa — were living in highly organized settlements throughout the peninsula when the Spanish first arrived in 1513.

The native peoples' lack of resistance to smallpox, yellow fever and other "European" diseases, as well as later slaving raids from the English colonies of Georgia and South Carolina, eventually decimated their numbers. By the mid-18th century, the Indian nations of Florida had ceased to exist.

In their place, groups of Indians from a confederation of tribes collectively referred to as the Lower Creeks began moving into Florida from Alabama and Georgia. They had been pushed out of their former homes by the encroachment of white settlers, as well as by conflicts with other tribes. It was around this time that the name "Seminoles" first appeared; there are several possible explanations as to its origins.

When the first English speakers began arriving in Florida in 1763, they found many Creeks living as yat'siminoli, or "free people," across the northern part of the Florida peninsula. ("Yat'siminoli" was a term used in the Mikisúki, or Miccosukee, language, which still is spoken today.) The settlers may have simply ignored the Indians' separate tribal affiliations and called them all Seminoles, or Seminoles.

Others believe that the Seminole name comes from the Spanish word cimarron, meaning "wild men" or "unconquered." The Indians may have been given this name because they had escaped from slavery in the English-controlled colonies to the north.

With the end of the American Revolutionary War in 1784, English-speaking settlers began moving southward in ever greater numbers, buying or seizing land from the native inhabitants. By 1813, some of the Creek tribes in Alabama rose up against the white settlers and the Indian tribes that supported them. This conflict, known as the Creek War of 1813-14, proved disastrous to all of the tribes. U.S. troops led by Gen. Andrew Jackson crushed the uprising and forced a treaty on the Creeks that took more than 2 million acres of land from them. Several thousand Creek warriors and their families migrated south into Spanish Florida, where they and the Seminoles increased their resistance to white settlement.

In 1814, such conflicts escalated into the first of three Seminole wars. Over the next four years, Jackson illegally entered Spanish Florida numerous times to burn Seminole villages and kill resistance leaders.

With the end of the First Seminole War in 1818, many Indians moved further into Florida. By 1820, the year before Spanish Florida became a U.S. territory, there were at least 5,000 Seminoles, Creeks and Mikisúki people living here. However, a series of federal treaties failed to protect their rights and, in 1835, war broke out again.

The Second Seminole War (1835-42) proved to be the longest, most costly, and the last of the U.S. wars of Indian removal fought east of the Mississippi River. It also would be the first guerilla-style war faced by U.S. troops. Led by the fierce

The Symbol: Seminoles

Florida State would play two games in 1947 before students demanded the school acquire a symbol. While details conflict, most believe the account of a poll of the student body is accurate. The Florida Flambeau reported that Seminoles had won by 110 votes over Statesmen. The rest of the top contenders (in order) were Rebels, Tarpons, Fighting Warriors and Crackers.

In the 1950s, a pair of students dressed in Native American costumes and joined the cheerleaders on the field which eventually evolved into the majestic symbol of Osceola and Renegade that FSU now enjoys. Today, the Seminole Indian Tribe participates in many campus activities.

Florida State University is proud of its longstanding cooperative relationship with the Seminole Tribe of Florida. The Seminole people have suffered many hardships and injustices, but they have remained brave, dignified and proud. The Seminoles are unconquered. They symbolize what we hope will be the traits of all of our graduates, including our student-athletes.

warrior Osceola, the Seminoles were aided by runaway slaves, who received protection from their allies in return for a portion of the agricultural staples that they grew. These so-called "Black Seminoles" also had a reputation as fierce fighters, and were equally determined to preserve their freedom.

The fighting ended in a stalemate in 1842, and an uneasy peace lasted for 14 years. In 1856, however, Seminole leader Billy Bowlegs and his followers were provoked by U.S. soldiers. They retaliated, and the ensuing series of skirmishes became known as the Third Seminole War (1856-58).

When U.S. troops once more withdrew — again with no treaty or victory — the Seminole Wars finally ended. All told, more than 3,000 Seminoles had been forcibly removed from Florida to the Western territories of Arkansas and Oklahoma. As few as 300 remained in Florida, and they took refuge within the dense swamps of the Everglades. However, their place in history was assured as the only American Indian tribe never to have signed a peace treaty with the U.S. government.

From the 1920s onward, as the development boom exploded in South Florida, the Seminoles lost more and more of their hunting lands to tourists and settlers. They became agricultural workers in the vegetable fields of South Florida, and also ran tourist attractions, wearing their colorful patchwork clothing, producing souvenirs and wrestling alligators.

On Aug. 21, 1957, the Seminole Tribe of Florida was established through a majority vote of Florida's Seminole Indians. This vote gave the Seminoles federal recognition as a self-governing tribe with a constitutional form of government. The Seminole Tribe of Florida now has almost 3,000 members living on five reservations across the peninsula at Hollywood, Big Cypress, Brighton, Immokalee and Tampa.

The Seminoles work hard to be economically independent. Tourism and gaming profits pay for infrastructure and schools on their reservations, while citrus groves, cattle agriculture, aircraft production, tobacco sales, land leases and aquaculture are other significant sources of revenue.

Having persevered through two centuries of adversity, the Seminole Indians of Florida have earned the right to call themselves "the unconquered people." Their indomitable spirit is one that Florida State University proudly seeks to emulate in all of its endeavors.
